

THE CONNECTOR

The student newspaper of U Mass Lowell

Vol. XX No.18

Recommened by four out of five SGA Senators

April 20, 1993

SGA Elections, Uncontested & Unrecognized

By Peter Anton
Connector Staff

Student Government held elections for the '93-'94 term last Tuesday and Wednesday. Only 521, or roughly 6% of the student population voted.

Brian Andriolo won the race for SGA President over Julie Thomas by the slimmest of margins— 206 votes to 201 votes—with 82 votes going to Ryan Tucker and 32 blank ballots handed in. Kevin Rourke beat Dan O'Grady in the battle for Vice President. Terri Stack won unopposed the position of SGA Secretary. Brian Keener also was unopposed as SGA Treasurer. Jonathon Leite won unopposed the position of Activities Commission Director.

The race for Student Trustee was perhaps the most controversial. David Cunningham outlasted Jason Butze, winning 261 to 229, with 24 blank ballots cast. Butze, who will be a graduate student next year, courted the Graduate Student vote, and is believed to have their support. However, no graduate students voted in the election, as no one volunteered to run the

Brian Andriolo became the new SGA President last Wednesday, winning by a narrow margin.

photo by Chris Nawn

booth for the graduate student office. In the past, graduate students were not allowed to vote in SGA elections, but heavy campaigning, especially by former Graduate Student Association President Ronald Steritti, won the right for grad students to represent the student body as trustee and to vote in the election. Butze however, has conceded the race, vowing not to "raise a stink" about the issue.

Of the 21 Senate seats representing the classes of '96, '95, and '94, only 8 seats will be filled. The open positions can be filled by appointment through the Governance Committee of SGA. Anyone interested in serving as a senator in SGA should contact the Governance Committee as soon as possible. In the past, open positions have usually gone to those who lost the few contested races. Assuming the four people who lost in contested races (not including Butze, who cannot serve on Senate as a grad student) are appointed, there will still be 9 senate seats unfilled. The 7 Freshman Senate seats will be filled in September, when the Freshman class arrives.

In the class of '94, Dan Hollingsworth's 129 votes beat out newcomer Sherrie Orzechowski's 107 in the race for Class President. Timothy Wooster, Mary Anne Forte, and Christopher 'Slush' Carter won unopposed the races for Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. George Franklin will serve as President of the class of '95, with Amy Flores as Vice President. Both won unopposed.

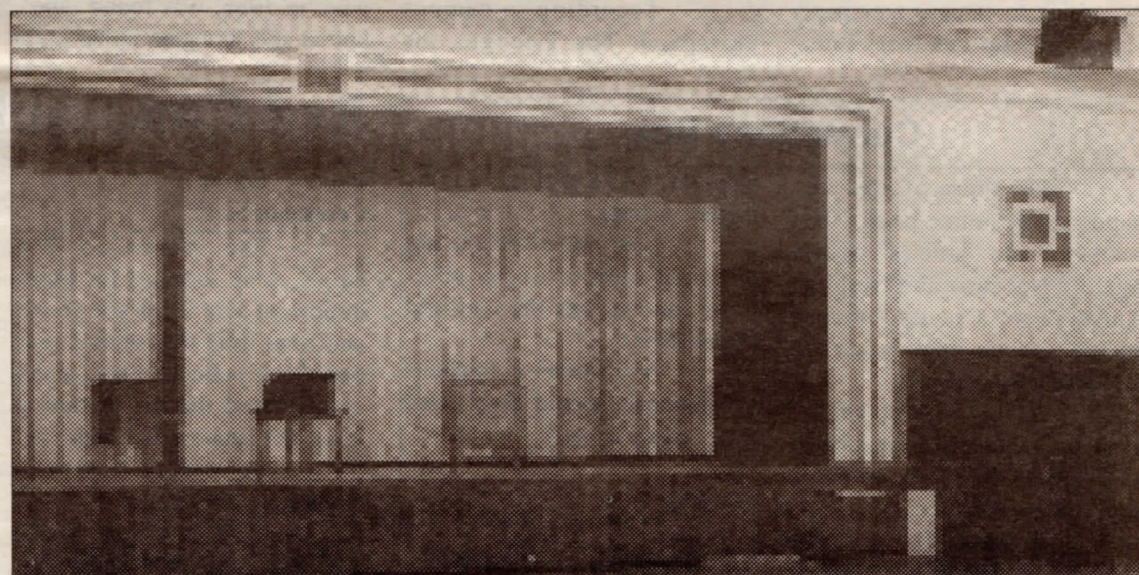

No one ran for the Secretary and Treasurer positions. For the class of '96, Ken Cosco will be President and Mark Paquette will be Vice President. Both won unopposed. The Secretary and Treasurer positions are open.

Proposal Made On Cumnock Acoustics

By Michele Ross
Connector Staff

Recently, a proposal was made to improve the acoustics in Cumnock Hall auditorium. Poor quality has limited good sound range to the front of the hall. In the past, concerts and movies have been barely heard from the back half of the hall and the renovation, if the request goes through, would greatly improve the condition. Fixing the acoustics system would allow sound to travel louder and more clearly to the far end of the auditorium. "There was a proposal given to Dean King to get the acoustics fixed," explained Mary Connelly, Director of Student Activities, "As far as I know, no money has been approved for it yet." Ron Steriti, president of the Graduate Student Association has indicated interest in the proposal and may allocate funds toward it but the decision has not yet been voted on formally.

"There was a proposal given to Dean King to get the acoustics fixed" - M. Connelly

photo by Chris Nawn

Students & S.H.A.R.E. Participate in Mock Trial Addressing The Issues Of 'Date Rape'

By Alex Maycock
Connector Staff

Joe is guilty! That's what the jury decided on Wednesday, April 14, 1993, at the Third Annual Mock Rape Trial, presented by S.H.A.R.E. and sponsored by Residence Life.

Students in attendance of the Third Annual Mock Rape Trial who found a red square stapled inside the program handed to them at the beginning of the trial were able to be on the jury. The jury decided Joe's fate after one hour and forty-five minutes listening to testimony and arguments from both the Prosecuting Attorney and the Defense Attorney.

Joe was on trial because he wanted sex but Sue didn't. Joe had sex with Sue without her consent and as evidence showed, Sue struggled in order to get herself free. By definition, Sue was raped: any penetration of a person's bodily orifice (vagina, mouth, anus) by another person's body part (pennis, tongue, finger) or object, committed against the person's will, by force or threat of force.

The outcome of the trial, with its guilty verdict, didn't get much support from the audience. Many seemed to believe that the verdict was too strong. Nevertheless, the verdict sent a powerful message: no means no; even if you don't say "yes" it means no. That's exactly what Sue did. She let Joe know that she wasn't ready for sex. He ignored her. Date rape—as in the case of Sue and Joe—is, unfortunately, very common. In fact, approximately 80-85% of rapes are acquaintance rapes (including boyfriends, neighbors, colleagues, sisters, etc...)

when asked about rape being a problem at UMass Lowell, Trish Anese, who served as the judge at the Mock Trial said the following: "I think [rape at UML] is a huge problem; our purpose is to educate students about this serious problem. The Mock Rape Trial helps students in their understanding of this delicate issue." She further advises that anybody who has been raped seek help. The Residence Life Staff is trained in counseling or you can call the Lowell Rape Crisis Center 24-hour hotline at 1-800-542-5212. It really doesn't matter who you contact, as long as you do contact somebody. Important to remember is: Rape is NEVER the fault of the victim.

Masque Productions Marks A First

By College Press Service
CLEVELAND - An old form of of drama known as a Jacobean masque, in which students portrayed satyrs, fairies, woodsmen, singing stars, with some riding in a chariot drawn by giant white bears, was presented at the Ohio Shakespeare Conference.

The production, sponsored by Cleveland State University and Case Western Reserve University, is believed to be the first full-scale masque ever presented in the United States, according to universities.

"Oberon: the Faery Prince" was originally presented in London 1611. The masques which were presented before kings, princes, and dukes in 16th and 17th century Europe, were a cooperative effort between major writers, composers, choreographers and designers of the time.

Inside...

- Demon toilet casts spell, page 2.
- Facts on Barnes & Noble, page 5.
- New Compact Disc Reviews, page 8

Connections

Editorials.....	4
Arts & Entertainment.....	6
Classified.....	15
Comix.....	17
Sports.....	19

NEWS

Colleges Pressured To Take Action In Rape Prevention

By Deborah Kane Mitchell
College Press Service

At Brown University in Rhode Island, students known as the Sexual Assault Peer Educators act out a date rape at a residence hall, while campus police offer women's self-defense classes at the student union.

At the University of Florida in Gainesville, counselors with Sexual Assault Recovery Services lead men's rape-awareness groups at fraternity houses.

In the wake of increasing violent crimes on the nation's college campuses, school officials are being pressured to alert students to the risks of university life, particularly in regard to rape.

In some cases, students who are frustrated by the judicial system's limitations in dealing with date rape cases are taking matters into their own hands.

About 20 male students at the University of Virginia formed a secret group called The Southern Society to confront alleged campus rapists. According to campus newspaper reports, group members intervene only at the request of the victim, who must contact them through a newspaper ad. The group's founder, who said his sister was raped, told the Cavalier Daily that the group was non-violent and that its intention was to help women who were afraid to press charges.

Anonymous fliers, posters and graffiti are being employed more now by women who are angry about date rape and are intent on publicizing the names of alleged perpetrators.

At Yale University, about 20 fliers identifying a male student as a rapist were posted on a classroom building. However, no victim has contacted campus police to report a rape, even anonymously. "It was sort of mysterious," said Martha Matzke, director of public affairs.

At other Universities, women have listed the names of alleged rapists and fraternities on walls in public areas. "Apple Pi Rapes Women - Stay Away!" read recent graffiti in a women's restroom at Drexel University in Philadelphia.

According to campus newspaper The Triangle, the graffiti appeared after a female student reported to police Jan. 31 that she had been assaulted at the Alpha Pi Lambda (known as "Apple Pi") fraternity house.

Carol Bohmer, associate professor of sociology at the University of Pittsburgh, said the reactions might be attributed to frustration.

"I suspect they feel they're not getting any where with the other methods," said Bohmer, co-author of the forthcoming book, "Rape Crisis on Campus."

"I think a lot of women are finding it very frustrating that their complaints, particularly in regard to date rape, are not being taken seriously."

Universities also are facing legal challenges and constraints in regard to rape. Laws passed in response to brutal crimes at colleges and universities have addressed the issue of intensified campus crime. Among them is the 1990 Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act, the result of a legislative battle by the parents of a Lehigh University freshman who, in 1986, was found raped, knifed and strangled in her dorm room.

The federal law requires all U.S. colleges and universities receiving federal funds to supply violent crime statistics annually.

Those 1991 crime reports, supplied by 2,400 colleges and universities and released last fall for the first time, shattered the image of the nation's campuses as oases of learning.

The reports showed almost 1,000 rapes among 7,500 cases of violent crimes, including 30 murders, more than 1,800 robberies, and thousands of burglaries and motor vehicle thefts, according to a report in The Chronicle of Higher Education.

The numbers are misleadingly low. The Chronicle reported that many colleges and universities missed the September deadline for filing the information and others failed to file, claiming not to know about the law or to misunderstand its requirements.

Another survey of violence on college and university campuses throughout the United States and Canada was conducted in 1990 by the Campus Violence Prevention Center at Towson State University in Maryland. Only 437 of the 2,700 institutions questioned responded to the survey, but the results were significant.

The institutions reported a total of 429 sexual assaults excluding rape, and 215 rapes on their campuses during the 1989-1990 academic year. More than half of these assaults were perpetrated by the women's dates or acquaintances and more than half involved alcohol.

College officials also have come under fire for poor handling of rapes and sexual assaults after they have occurred. Rather than referring rape victims to the police or encouraging them to pursue prosecution, college and university officials often have chosen to handle the assaults internally, using campus disciplinary boards.

These boards, more accustomed to dealing with cases of plagiarism than assault, have been widely criticized by experts who say the boards handle the cases using invisible procedures. Others, like Bohmer, say campus judicial boards can be effective if date rape cases are handled

See Rape Prevention, page 3

Corrections Box

For those of you who happened to notice page 3 last week, the two "articles" written by Jeff Nazzaro and Stephan Antsey were actually columns and not genuine news articles as they were represented.

Unfortunately, neither of the two columns were labeled and thus the two articles appeared to be biased.

Although the Connector does not apologize for Antsey's opinions, we do apologize for the layout mishap.

Also, MassPIRG is not the main sponsor of the jelly-bean contest, but the Cultural Pluralists are.

Any further complaints or comments should be directed to our editorial staff.

Sincerely,

The Connector

Red Cross and CSO are at it again

By Jeff Nazzaro
Connector Staff

The American Red Cross came looking for blood donors at UML for the fourth and final time this school year. Red Cross publicist Lisa Landon coordinated the drive, and as usual got support and help from the Community Service Organization (CSO).

CSO President Alysia Tardelli, of Kappa Delta Phi, who helped sign people up Wednesday in the South Campus S.U.B., indicated a poor overall turnout. The Red Cross was set up Monday and Tuesday on North, falling short of their goal of 65 pints per day by about 10 units each day.

"With the rain, it didn't go as well as we hoped but there was a better turnout [Wednesday]," Tardelli said.

"The tables have been pretty full all day [Wednesday]; we should meet or exceed our goal [of 65 units], Tardelli stated, adding "South Campus is usually better than North Campus anyway."

Two of the South Campus donors on Wednesday were Freshmen Stephenie Gabelmann, who is studying art, and Christine Gatto, an undeclared health major.

Gabelmann, donating blood for the second time, said the procedure went "fine," stating "I like the satisfaction of knowing I'm helping someone and that if I were lying in a hospital bed in need of blood, knowing that people are out there who donate."

Gatto summed up the merits of giving blood when she said "sacrificing a half-hour of your time to save somebody's life is definitely worth it."

The American Red Cross in Lowell is located at 391 Pawtucket St. and accepts blood donations on the first and third Wednesdays of every month. Donors are required a 56 day waiting period between donations.

'Demon' Toilet Casts Spell On Newspaper

The Independent Florida Alligator

College Press Service

GAINESVILLE, Fla. - Sometimes, a newspaper just has to wade through it.

When Ed Barber, general manager of The Independent Florida Alligator, arrived at work March 18, he happened upon a toilet cemented to the sidewalk in front of the building.

But this was no ordinary commode. This toilet was adorned with various satanic markings.

It wasn't difficult to see the writing on the bowl. It included the 666 with a happy face above it and a statement which read, "May the dead rise and smell the incense."

A note also was sent with the toilet. It contained various German phrases, including one which translated to, "He is ringing the bell at the door." Another phrase read "The sweater shall be done soon."

The note also had several satanic markings on it.

"These are the kinds of things that newspapers can expect to experience, since unfortunately there are some sick people or some people with sick senses of humor," Barber said.

Police were called to the scene and determined the toilet was harmless.

"There's some weird shit in this town," Gainesville police Sgt. Walt Eisenbrown said. "We've had some satanic verses with dead animals around, but this is the first satanic toilet I've ever been to."

The incident prompted the staff to pen an editorial about returning from spring break to extensive power outages because of a massive winter storm and a cemented toilet bowl outside the office.

"We came back too early," the editorial noted, passing along the newspaper's new proverb: "A week that begins with no power must end with a satanic toilet."

CAR THEFT?
NO MORE!
EFFECTIVE ANTI-THEFT DEVICES THAT REALLY WORK.

STARTING AT 89<sup>00</sup> INSTALLED

FREE CONSULTING SERVICES.

AUTO SECURITY
WIRED FOR SOUND
CAR STEREO

207 CHELMFORD ST.
LOWELL, MA 01851

453-4699

NEWS

Rape prevention demanded on campus

From page 1

properly because women are reluctant to press criminal charges against men they know.

Mark Goodman, executive director of the Washington-based Student Press Law Center, cites examples of officials protecting high-profile college athletes, whose cases bypass local police authorities and are handled by closed campus judiciary boards.

That practice has been challenged by students bringing expensive lawsuits against colleges and universities. In 1991 four students brought a lawsuit against Carleton College in Minnesota, charging the college with improper handling of their assault cases. The suit was settled out of court later that year. The Campus Sexual Assault Victims' Bill of Rights was a result of the Carleton College lawsuit. The 1992 law requires universities to set up counseling programs, inform students of available programs and encourage sexual assault victims to work with off-campus police and authorities.

Over the past few years, the University of Southern California in Los Angeles has been hit with campus security lawsuits costing the university millions of dollars.

University spokesman Rob Asghar said much of the crime that happens on USC's campus stems from its location in crime-ridden, south-central Los Angeles. But after campus rapes and subsequent lawsuits, USC officials appointed an external panel of experts in 1991 to study USC's sexual assault programs.

Asghar said the panel's recently released report cited an "urgent need for formal, written policies. The panel made 47 recommendations, and said that USC could lead the nation in developing programs that deal with sexual assault."

Among its many suggestions, the panel recommended that the university immediately inform everyone on campus when a sexual assault occurs, that it furnish mandatory education on sexual assault and prevention to all new students, and that it better coordinate with local law enforcement agencies to avoid investigative delays.

While many universities are being forced to answer the call for tighter campus security and better rape prevention programs, Goodman of the Student Press Law Center said some universities have made strides by providing their campus newspapers with crime statistics that enable students to protect themselves and by providing comprehensive programs.

The University of Florida's Sexual Assault Recovery Program is one example. When a rape occurred in a dorm room on the Gainesville campus a few months ago, "the administration was incredibly supportive," said Mary Koch Ruiz, the programs director.

The man raped one woman and attempted to rape her roommate. Both women were immediately referred to the center where counselors worked with them, contacting local authorities and explaining options. Ruiz said counselors were also sent to the students' residence hall to assist other students.

Ruiz said that along with crisis intervention, the program's counselors provide sexual assault peer education programs that help students understand their fears and how to cope with a sense of loss of control.

the university is also developing a model program targeting male students, who, studies have shown, are responsible for most of the sexual assaults and rapes on campus. Ruiz said that many men are reluctant to participate in rape-awareness programs, but outreach is beginning to work. "We're getting more calls from fraternities now," Ruiz said.

Joseph Weinberg, a rape-prevention educator with a special focus on men, said he is not surprised by male students' resistance. He also encounters resistance from fraternity members and athletes when he conducts rape-awareness sessions on campuses nationwide.

"We're challenging deeply held notions of what it means to be a man in our society," Weinberg said. "When you go into a group and say, 'Hello, we are rapist pigs. Now, what are we going to do about it?', it doesn't elicit a happy response. But all the defensiveness, all the woofing and other male stuff we get is critical to the process."

"I tell men, 'If you continue to buy into the model of traditional masculinity, it is very possible that you will commit a sexual assault.'"

Matzke, of Yale University, said she sees the various reactions - the fliers, the vigilante group, "take back the night" rallies and disagreement about judicial board procedures - as part of the struggle that American society is going through as it redefines rape and relations between men and women.

Women have felt violated and powerless because date rape has been treated carelessly in the past, but they are now taking a stronger role in changing the way cases are handled.

"Women are trying to say, 'The old ways don't work for us,'" Matzke said.

Student Broadcasts For A 172 Hour Radio Marathon

By John Williams
College Press Service

Whatever you do, don't ask Scott Davis about Iron Butterfly's "In-A-Gadda-Da-Vida." And don't even think about mentioning "Stairway to Heaven" by Led Zeppelin.

Disc jockeys from around the country were calling Davis, a junior at Evansville University in Evansville, Ind., who during his spring break, logged 172 hours of continuous broadcasting. The DJs wanted to know if he were playing either of the two rock songs that seem to go on forever.

"They asked me, 'Do you go to the bathroom, do you play 'In-A-Gadda-Da-Vida' and 'Stairway to Heaven'?' Davis said.

The answer is yes, no and no.

Davis is a communications major who also works as an announcer at WUEV-FM, the campus radio station. He hadn't planned on the marathon broadcast, which broke the record for the National Association of College Broadcasters. It seems he was drafted more than he volunteered.

"I was sitting in the front office talking with some people about the fact that just one guy had signed up for three night position during spring break," Davis said. "Someone mentioned that one person could do it all week. I left. While I was gone I was voted into this."

Instead of going to Dayton, Ohio, or St. Louis for spring break like he had planned, Davis ended up in the radio station. He got no tan. He has no stories to tell his friends about wild times during spring break.

He spent his break in the booth. He sat. He walked around the studio, he made public service announcements, and he put one compact disc on the air after another. He said between 5 a.m. and 6 a.m. he would put some long-running CDs on the air and sleep.

"Think of jazz cuts. One of our major programming blocks is jazz. We have CDs with 30-minutes songs," Davis said.

When he had to use the facilities, he put on a five- to 10-minute song and scooted to the bathroom. Radio stations across the nation called to interview him and listeners in the Evansville area called to give him encouragement.

Davis started the marathon stint at 11 p.m. on March 5 and finished at 3 a.m. on March 13.

"He just collapsed. He was rather incoherent," a station worker said.

He won no money and got no trophy for the marathon broadcast. "What would I get? 'Schmuck of the Year Award'?" he asked.

Jeff Nazzaro

Arena sounds good to me.

The question is: what college student would not want a new arena on their campus? Think about it. "Hey students, we're going to build a new arena for our hockey and basketball teams to play in, with an indoor track, plenty of seats and right on campus. Sound good?" It sounds good to me.

This arena is just what we need. At UMass Lowell we have many problems. On South Campus there is a major parking dilemma; O'Leary Library is pitiful; students get screwed by a corporate-giant of a bookstore; the administration just does not care about its students; its students just do not care about anything; absolutely no incoming freshman can spell Bourgeois. We all know and continue to hear about these shortcomings, but the biggest problem, the biggest problem at UMass Lowell is the absence of any sense of campus community. Yes, we have none.

Students come and go, and really, who can blame them. There is nothing here. The Student Union Building is a joke, the estranged Greeks are barely visible, and almost everyone commutes to begin with so it is only perfectly natural to go home when school (read: classes) is over.

School should be more than classes, eating/drinking/smoking way too much and sleeping way too little. College should include friends, activities and spirit. Yes, spirit. School pride. Sing a song. Rah-rah. Accost an official in the name of UML. This is why we need an arena.

"This presents a sad commentary on our degenerative society: we build newer and bigger buildings while life's foundation crumbles around us."

Hockey is a very big sport in the northeast and in Massachusetts in particular. Over half the '92 Olympic hockey team heralded from the Bay State. Right here at Lowell we have a legitimate Division I hockey power. Next year's team will be even better than the team that nearly edged eventual National Champion Maine. Juniors Mike Murray and Shane Henry were fourth and fifth in Hockey East scoring, respectively; junior goaltender Dwayne Roloson played spectacularly behind often suspect defense (the team's one weakness gets worse with Scott Meehan graduating); and a talented freshman cast adds a year of experience to great beginnings. So the team will be there, but what about the students?

An on-campus facility will give the hockey team a real home. It will also provide a legitimate venue for the basketball teams that have enjoyed anonymous success in recent years (the men won the Division II National Championship in '88 and the women this past season nearly made the Division II Final Four). In addition, a new arena will provide a setting for concerts, shows, maybe even ESPN coverage (don't worry, Dick Vitale won't show up).

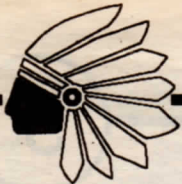

Eighty percent of UML students commute and our high-rise dormitory is nearly vacant. Meanwhile, UMass Amherst packs 'em in from all over the state and brags about their new 8,400 seat Mullins Center, where Metallica and Guns N' Roses have already had dates. Sure, Amherst has a great campus in a good college town, but what do schools like UMass Dartmouth and Merrimack College have over Lowell? Nothing. Zero. At Lowell we have a top-notch engineering program, a quality music department, great liberal arts faculty and much, much more.

We have three times as many campuses as most colleges and universities, yet no sense of community. We need this arena. We need the forum for pride that it will give to us. UMass Lowell isn't a bad place, it just needs to discover itself. I don't think anyone wants that discovery to be: engineering school, commuters. This isn't a community college for math and science whizzes; it's a university, with 10,000 students, seven colleges, two campuses and a river. Sounds good to me.

Before a sense of campus community may arise, however, there has to be at least a semblance of an on-campus life. Simply put, UML has to attract borders. Athletic teams are identifying entities (I bet over half the UML student body knows where the universities of Michigan and North Carolina are); so are new buildings. The average prospective freshman isn't going to return from a campus visit and tell his or her friends, "oh, the new hockey rink was alright, but there just weren't enough vol umes in the library." If she or he is, chances are they aren't thinking about Lowell to begin with. This presents a sad commentary on our degenerative society: we build newer and bigger buildings while life's foundation crumbles around us.

UMass Lowell has the potential of being very attractive to students of all backgrounds and from all parts of the state. It is small without being tiny, big without being overwhelming; it is challenging without being impossible and it has all the ingredients for a great college atmosphere. These ingredients should be formulated into a place where spirit and pride abound in an intellectually stimulating and fun setting. Reading James Joyce and drinking Pepsi just won't do it. We need more books and a new arena. I don't know, it sounds good to me. (Nazzaro's column appears weekly in the Connector.)

EDITORIAL

The Connector

Derek Roy
Editor-in-Chief

Managing Editor: Paul Griffis
Production Manager: Paul Griffis

NEWS

Editors: James A. Kimble,
Ryan Tucker
Staff: Peter Anton, Alex Maycock, Michelle Ross, Mike Macomber,
Copy Editor: Jeff Nazzaro

ARTS

Editor: Ian Underwood
Staff: Kerrie Belluando,
Joseph Eubanks, Matt Gormley,
Dave Muggleston, Ken Provencher

SPORTS

Editor: Chris Meelia
Staff: Ed Morris

Photography Editor: Chris Nawn
Staff: Joe Nerden

Comics Editor: Dave Sockey

Librarian: Damon Psarris

Public Relations:
Greg Rushton-Karasawa

Business Manager:
Nathan Butze

Advertising Manager:
Nathan Butze
Design Representatives:
Dave Blanchette, Jim Corcoran, Tracy
Kotkowski, David Laubner, Chris
Nawn, Peter Plourde, Theresa Barberi
Daniel Roeger, Teresa Willis

Circulation: open

System Operator: Charles Purwin

Office Manager: Susan Pelletier
Office Secretary: Helen Perron
Faculty Advisor: Prof. Joseph Waterman

Publication Policy

Deadline is 5:00 p.m. Monday in Fox 426. On Monday holidays deadline is 5:00 p.m. Tuesday. The Connector considers for publication reviews, articles and commentaries on any topic of interest to members of the U Mass Lowell community.

Submission Guidelines: The easiest way to submit long articles or letters is to enter them directly into our computer. Otherwise they must be typed double-spaced with equal margins. Include your name and box number. A phone number is advised in case of questions.

Notices:

These should be short and informative: dates, places, meeting times, deadlines, club announcements, etc.

Organizational Ads:

The Connector typesets display ads for university organizations sponsoring general events. Handwritten flyers will be typeset and not directly reproduced. Repeat printings may be cut out and mounted on paper. The Connector reserves the right to limit space to non-paid ads.

Comics:

Comics are published at the discretion of the comics editor. They must be drawn 4" x 10" in black ink. Do not use pencil.

Personals/Classifieds:

These must be typed on 3" x 5" index cards double-spaced. Student classifieds will run for two weeks free of charge. Call to renew if desired. The Connector reserves the right to edit for length. Office Hours:

Mon.-Thurs.: 8:30-4:00, Fri. 8:30-2:00. Call anytime at 934-5009.

Barnes & Noble: they play games with our money

Barnes & Nobles owes U Mass Lowell $75,000. In the (RFP) request for proposal it was stated that UMass Lowell would allow an 18% mark-up on books with the agreement that Barnes & Nobles would return $175,000 after fiscal year 1993. $100,000 has been paid. Where is the rest?

They were allowed a maximum 18% gross margin mark-up but accidentally overcharged at 25%. So in attempt to compensate they subtracted 7% from 125%. That still does not equal 18%. A well established business does not make such amateurish mistakes, unless there is harmful intent.

When UMass Lowell has been paid the total $175,000 the figure will be distributed three ways.

•$50,000 will go directly to the UMass Lowell mailroom employees for salaries.

•$62,500 will go to the Bookstore Committee. This money is set up in a fund which is available to university clubs and organizations upon request approval.

•$62,500 is given to the administration. Specific allocation of this figure are most likely going to the Arena. However, bear in mind that this is $62,500 which administration did not receive last year or any previous from the Bookstore Associates. If anybody receives this money students should. The Bookstore Associates, previous managing power of the bookstore, channeled their profits toward the mailroom and the BSA fund only. Administration did just fine.

Now consider this; when Barnes & Nobles purchased the space previously occupied by the BSA they agreed to pay an extra $80,000 (beyond the set figure for the space) for fixture. This included shelving, registers, lights, etc. Barnes & Nobles agreed this was fair and committed themselves. Unhappy with those fixtures, they opted to remove them and replace them with new fixtures. Is it possible that they are holding out on this money in retaliation for a purchase they did not really want? Could this be why there is still no signed contract?

Questions or comments? Connector x5009/ SGA x5005

An Open Letter to the Students

As you know, Spring Carnival will be held on Friday, April 30, 1993. We are asking for your help.

In the past, parties held over the weekend of Spring Carnival have resulted in strained relations between the citizens of Pawtucketville and the University.

We have worked very hard to build Spring Carnival into the tradition it has become. We would hate to see it cancelled forever. Therefore, please consider the following:

1) Party Smart - Public drinking is against the law, whether on your lawn or the street. Over the weekend, there will be increased police coverage in the neighborhoods as well as road blocks to discourage excessive drinking. Please don't let your friends drive drunk! Realize that arrests will be made this year in response to complaints raised last year. Is it worth it to spend the night in jail? (A larger holding facility has been arranged for by the police for this year's activities.)

2) Respect your neighbors - Please keep noise levels down in deference to families with young children and senior citizens. Please check in the morning and clean any trash resulting from your guests in the neighborhood. Please consider how you would like your parents and family to be treated if you meet with citizens who have concerns. With your help and cooperation, this can be the most successful Spring Carnival ever.

3) Finally, try to bear in mind that the UMass Lowell's judicial process extends to off-campus residents also. All students have received a copy of the student conduct handbook from the Office of University Life earlier this semester.

Thank you for your anticipated cooperation and enjoy UML's Spring Carnival 1993!!!

Jonathan Leite, Director
Activities Commission

Stephan Anstey

The suggestion box

To arms!

To arms!

The time has come for the the student body, the faculty, and the staff to unite. We have a voice and it is time to use it.

The Connector is circulated to over 3500 people, including administration, local officials, community leaders, state reps, the governors office, and many Federal representatives. The students, faculty, and staff of UMass Lowell have a right to be heard. The Connector gives them the way.

All you need to do to make your voice heard is one of these three things

1) Dial 934-5009 and leave your opinion. Try to be brief, and keep in mind that the person on the other end isn't a stenographer. Be patient and polite, if you aren't you can expect to be disconnected. The lines are open 24hrs a day, if no one picks up immediately wait for the answering machine to pick up and leave your suggestion there.

2) Leave a legible note at The Connector (Fox 426) or in either mail room addressed to The Connector. The Note does not need a name, box number or any form of ID. It is your choice if you want your name connected to the idea. This anonymity is to protect faculty and students from repercussions of negative ideas.

3) EMail your suggestions to Woods:: connector.

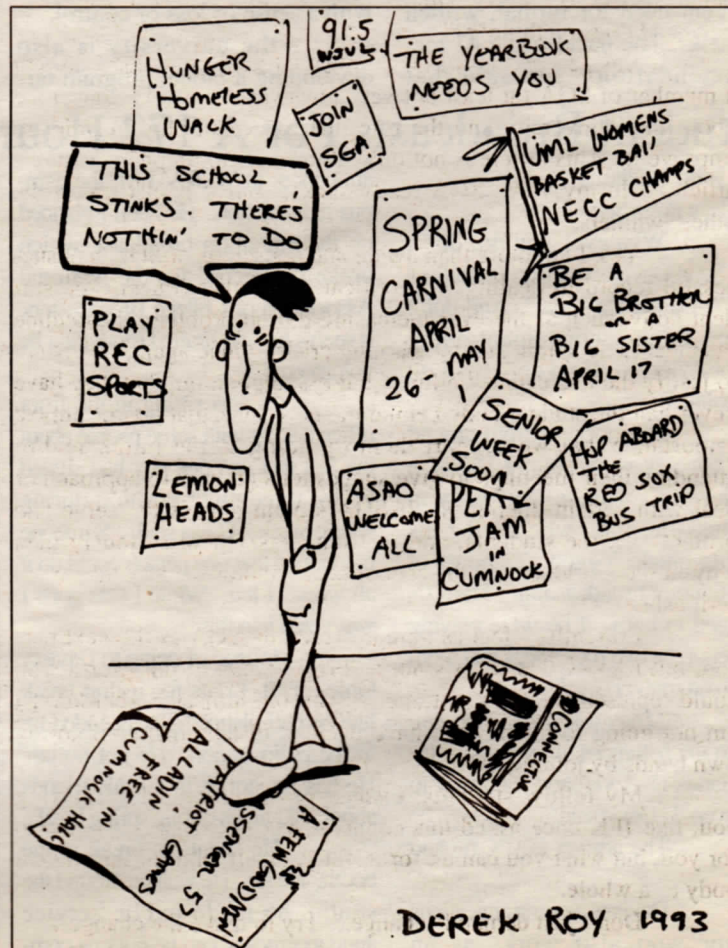

There are no length or subject restrictions. It is completely up to you, but remember this isn't a public forum, it is a suggestion box so try to keep it away from opinions on the way things are, and move it towards your vision of the way things should be.

Ideas and suggestions can range from the new majors, getting rid of old majors, to firing a dept head to parking solutions, to Students unionizing, to increasing core requirements.

If you have an opinion and you don't have it published you only prove that apathy is the over-riding fact at UMass Lowell. If you care at all about anything at UMass Lowell, then please use this service.

I will try to print every single idea submitted, all I can say is that the shorter your piece is, and the more clear and concise, the more likely you are to have your whole piece printed.

I hope that at least a 1000 people will respond. I want to hear from department heads, the ladies in the library, the SGA, the faculty senate, the Building Authority, RA's, TA's, Graduate students, undergrads, part-time students, night students, gay students, handicapped students, minority students, and anyone else that has an opinion at UMass Lowell. Together we can prove that APATHY IS DEAD AT UMASS LOWELL.

OPINION

Despite low enrollment, freshman are still banned Sheehy and Donahue

While heading into my last semester, I found that I was in need of a new roommate. So, I requested one, a freshman at that. Seems alright so far, right? . . . . WRONG, because I live in one of the two newer dorms (Sheehy & Donahue), which are "for upper-classmen only". So I received a different roommate, one of University Life's choosing. Well, as this semester started, I ran into a number of freshmen who live in my hall. Now, to clarify the University Life rule on Freshmen, you can be allowed to live in the two new dorms if you are a "transfer Freshman". But, as I discovered, some of these freshmen were not transfer freshmen, they were ordinary freshmen.

The lady there actually tried to get the names of the freshmen that I had talked to!! My purpose was to discuss the situation, NOT TO INCRIMINATE ANY ONE. So, after telling the lady at the front desk that, I left my name and phone number, on my suggestion, so that I could talk to Mrs. Ciraldi later. To this date, I STILL have not received word about it, and this is the reason for my letter. Now, I expect that due to this letter I shall be hearing from University Life, and since we all know what the "rules" are, what I would like to have answered, Publicly, are the following items: 1) With enrollment being as low as it is why is the "upper-classman only" rule still in effect? 2) Furthermore, why does University Life deny some freshmen, while allowing others (and by others, I mean all, either in or out of the "transfer freshmen" exception)? I would like to restate that in NO WAY DO I WISH ACTIONS TO BE TAKEN AGAINST THE FRESHMEN ALREADY IN THE NEW DORMS! I just wish that University Life please respond to my questions . . . and if I have misstated please correct my understanding of the "upperclassmen only" or "transfer freshman exception" rules.

Thank you,
Jeff Auerbach

If "SGA Really Sucks," Stop Crying and Do Something

For the past two years that I have been in this University, I have constantly read and heard negative criticism about the Student Government Association (SGA). But lately (primarily because of elections) the "bitching" has reached a new level, and I feel compelled to say to the cry-babies, "Stop crying. Get off your lazy butts and do something!#?"

Before I go any further, I must let you know that I am not a member of SGA (at least not yet), however, I am very concerned about this University and the role that SGA can play in order to improve it. This article is not only a response to Stephen Anstey's article, "In my view, SGA really sucks," but it is also to all the other "whiners."

Yes, I am more than aware and conscious of SGA's unsuccessful record in dealing with critical issues that concern the student body, such as the ever-increasing-tuition problem, the decline in student education, and the parking crisis. Once again, this is not to justify their so called "failure," but it's to point out that they have never had the student body behind them. I think that it is of utmost importance that we support them by going to the rallies and/or attending their meetings to give suggestions on how to approach or deal with certain dilemmas. If SGA's main duty is to "serve and protect" us, the students, and we don't take them seriously then why in the world should the school board and/or the city take them seriously.

Presently, I feel as unrepresented by SGA as the next person, but I know that there's not a single person in this world who could represent Jacques Antoine Dessin, but himself. Therefore, I am not going to bitch, but I have decided to take matters into my own hands by joining SGA.

My fellow students, instead of "bitching," I am asking you, like JFK once asked this county, "Ask not what SGA can do for you, but what you can do for it, for yourself, and for the student body as a whole."

Don't just demand "change." Try to make the change!!

Jacques A. Dessin

Anstey is out of line

The article in last week's Connector written by Steve Anstey was way out of line. I'm not a member of SGA or for that matter involved in any recognized club or organization. I do read the Connector and other local newspapers. I also listen to the local radio stations, WCAP and WLLH. Furthermore, I watch the local cable station channel 6. All year long in all of these media resources; I have read, heard, or seen many of the Student Government leaders represent the student needs and concerns. They have talked about parking, the bookstore, and tuition and fees among other issues. It's a disgrace that Steve Anstey falsely accuses these hard working students, who by the way, volunteer their time without any compensation. I plan on attending more Student Government meetings to find out better what is going on here at the University. Also, many of the candidates have made promises that I intend to follow up on. As far as I'm concerned this year's Student Government has done a good job. From what I've read in the newspaper and heard on the radio, they have challenged the administration and worked with the appropriate people to get things accomplished. Good Job!

William F. Cullen

Exercise YOUR first amendment rights...
Join
the Connector!

"In my view, SGA is really great"

This past year has definitely been an interesting one. Student Government has taken on and discussed some very heated topics. The bookstore issue is still a hot topic. Up to this point SGA has really been involved in the decisions made on the bookstore. SGA has established the new bookstore committee which grants funding requests to clubs and organizations. It's open to all students and I challenge students to take advantage of these funds. The other issue is the overcharge to the students. The issue is still being resolved, but SGA has actively been pursuing these funds that are owed to the students. Lastly, the upcoming move of the South Campus bookstore from Coburn Hall to the Student Union Center is an issue. Let me just say that the move will not cost the students anything. Barnes & Noble has already stated that it will completely pay for this move and the upgrade of facilities within the Student Union building.

The parking problem has existed since the University opened. I have met with the administration well over twenty times on this issue in hopes of finding a potential solution. The administration has pursued the Marginal St. lot which would provide over two hundred new parking spots. This lot is located behind Mahoney Hall. Furthermore, I have contacted Rep. John Cox about the parking situation. He filed a bill that would buy the Vulkor building located on Broadway St. It's about one hundred yards from Coburn Hall. This purchase would solve the problem. Already this bill has passed the House of Representatives. The Senate will vote on it soon. So contact your hometown State Senator.

We have also tackled many other issues such as apathy, ROTC, WJUL (antenna issue), tuition and fees, and the list goes on. Steve Anstey wrote in last week's Connector that the SGA sucked. Poor Steve, obviously you have been living in a closet for the last year. Either that or the ghost of Geoff Pahl has been influencing you. You stated that you read over the Senate minutes and in the very next breath you said the IR club received a big increase in funding from the previous year. Your absolutely wrong! The IR club initially got a 50% decrease in funding. After spending its money, it went before the Financial committee and got additional funds, which totaled a whopping $90.00 more than last year's total SGA allocation. You were right when you stated the Magik club also received a 50% decrease. The reason behind this was clubs in the past were allocated a budget and didn't spend it. Other clubs were given a budget and spent it and could have used more. So instead of allocating all of our money right away we explored the opportunity of distributing funds as clubs need money. For example, the Magik club could come back for more funding and easily acquire it. This was stated over and over again, and all clubs received memos to this effect.

SGA has done a great job this year. Many of the Senators have spent many hours working on student issues. The dedication they have shown is tremendous and all Senators should be proud of themselves. The SGA executive board has accomplished many great things this year. The long hours of hard work, in my opinion, has created the necessary channels and avenues of communication necessary to get things done. My advice to the incoming student leaders is to keep the lines of communication open. SGA hasn't always agreed, but we are not here to agree, we are here to represent the students and all of the different student opinions. This allows us to be more effective in our decision making. Whether you agreed with SGA or not, many of you, the students, got involved this year. This was one of our goals. I hope to see continued student support and opposition, it allows for the truth to be heard.

Former Student Government President
John O'Donnell

A &amp; E

Photo by: David James

The idyllic marriage of David (Woody Harrelson) and Diana Murphy (Demi Moore) is challenged by a wealthy financier in Indecent Proposal.

Indecent Proposal is too decent.

by Ken Povencher
Connector Staff

Adrian Lyne is the most responsible sleaze artist alive; in movies like Flashdance, 9 1/2 Weeks, and Fatal Attraction, his soft-core sensibility had a moralistic streak that punished us for being turned on. His characters could fornicate all over the map, but the cost of it all—marriages, sanity, self-respect—was always crippling or fatal. Lyne has talent, but it's the kind of talent that can turn kitchen-sink porno into a sermon about ethics.

If DeMille were alive today, he'd probably be making Adrian Lyne movies: swank spectacles as chaste and virtuous as a church on Sunday. Indecent Proposal is his latest R-rated homily. (It should have been called "Reverend Lyne's Number Four: The Evils of Money Love.") The ads for the movie promise a loose, sexy melodrama, but it turns out to be a monotonous love story about the superiority of a shoe-string romance. It's about feeling sorry for rich lonely guys.

Structurally, Indecent Proposal is an insult to the audience. Lyne assumes we can't accept a ridiculous premise without an hour's worth of exposition, so the movie has a long, lazy buildup. We're introduced to David and Diana Murphy (Woody Harrelson, Demi Moore) by way of a cute home-movie flashback: the two flower children carve their names into a pier, giggle at zoo animals, cuddle in a field, etc. This is to show us that the Murphys were happy when they were poor. Next comes The Wedding and The First Apartment. Diana pouts at David's habit of leaving his clothes on the floor. They argue, make up, and have violent sex on the dining room floor. These scenes have a reverent, fantastical tone, as if the two were Wagnerian superlovers. When the recession hits and the Murphys are down to their last five thousand dollars, they drive to Las Vegas to try their luck. This is to show us David's "dark side"; he has a spineless betting method, shifting from red to black to red and losing. By the time John Gage (Robert Redford) enters the picture with his now-famous million-dollar offer, we're pathetically grateful that someone's finally done something.

Indecent Proposal has a built-in lack of suspense. If Diana doesn't accept Gage's offer there would be no movie, and even if she did, and everything went fine and the Murphys pocketed their million without regrets, that wouldn't be a movie either. But the predictability wouldn't be a problem if screenwriter Amy Holden Jones didn't take herself so seriously. The Murphys aren't aware that he's testing their loyalty. David suffers the most after Diana accepts: he broods, he beats the walls, he throws things. When he works himself into an Othellian rage and demands to know if the sex was good, Diana doesn't have the wit to reply.

That's why the movie's such a bore: the billionaire looks like Robert Redford. Whoever came up with the idea of casting Redford should be forced to sit through "Shoah," twice. With Redford the movie's pointless, without a spark. If the billionaire were an ugly, overbearing slob and wealth were his only attractive quality, the movie might have some bite. How about David Carradine as a blind paraplegic? Or Sigourney Weaver as a Lisa Lyon dominatrix? The possibilities are endless: ANY-THING but the face that inspired Memories.

Redford is an unnecessary complication. It's doubtful that one of the most handsome men ever photographed would have to rely on money to sleep with women. Jones seems to realize this, so she has Gage "explain" his indecency: he rambles on about lost ideals, and about a girl he spotted on a train forty or fifty years ago and never stopped thinking about. Redford has his own reasons for being here; in the movie's press material he calls "Indecent Proposal" "a post-mortem of the 80's when greed was licensed in the United States as a way to be and a way to go. Gage is the embodiment of the Faustian bargain." In a spinning, philosophical world of his own, Redford shuffles through the picture with the weight of the nation on his shoulders.

Indecent Proposal is an exercise in personality drain. Diana has no friends; David has two: a cream-colored, furry lapdog and a brash lawyer (Oliver Platt) who fulfills the same purpose as the Stuart Pankin character in Fatal Attraction—he's not very funny, but he's amoral enough to break all the soul-searching tension.

It's easy to see why the movie's a hit: it has the phlegmatic appeal of a soap opera, which makes it a great dating movie. Soap operas hook you with their slow-motion, lifeless plots; the only way to keep interested is to see yourself in the characters, and that, I imagine, can be hard to shake. There's nothing offensive or marginal here; everything boils down to a cliché: "It's better to be poor and in love than rich and loveless." The movie is being sold as a Cosmopolitan lovers' quiz; its tag line is "What Would You Do?"

Letter to the Editor . . .

In response to last week's review of the Off-Broadway Players' production, "Roses, Russians, and Groundhogs," I apologize on behalf of the "Counting the Ways" cast as well as anyone theatrically experimenting in hopes of broadening the artistic scope of the Off-Broadway Players.

I apologize that we did not produce a tried and true though well-worn classic, that we did not stage a play "that more college students could relate to." Instead, we took a risk—a risk we'll take again.

Pardon us for not being complacent and shallow, but the point is we do not and will not underestimate the intelligence and the open-mindedness of the audiences who come to our performances. To do so is an insult.

Mariola Mroczko

Photo by: Nancy Horton

Che Guevara (David O'Neil) is the musical alter ego of Eva Peron, (Candace Azotea) in "Evita."

Seacoast Repertory Theater performs "Evita".

by Kerrie Belluardo
Connector Staff

The Seacoast Repertory Theater in Portsmouth, New Hampshire is putting on "Evita" now through May 2. "Evita" is Andrew Lloyd Webber's two-act musical based on the life of the legendary Eva Peron, the wickedly charismatic symbol of hope and success for many Argentinians during the 1940's and 1950's. Webber teamed up with lyricist Time Rice, who more recently worked on the Disney film Aladdin to create this strikingly powerful and original show.

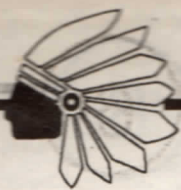

Evita tells the story of a woman driven solely by power and how she eventually attained it. She seduced and stole the hearts of men to get to the top until she finally met Juan Peron who was genuinely impressed with her lust for life. He was more impressed when he saw what she could do for him—she flattered him and fed his ego by praising on the radio his genius as the next great leader of the country. Once married to Peron, Eva did much for her country she overcame military opposition, established a foundation to help the poor, and became a respected and admired role model of the Argentinians. The story is told from the point of view of Che Guevara, the legendary revolutionary who is fascinated by Eva, but can't stand her or her husband. The arguments between Che and Evita provide an added dimension to the background information. Through Che, the audience is made aware that publicly, the Perons expressed the desire to rid Argentina of social injustice, while privately, they took advantage.

The role of Evita was exquisitely played by Candace Azotea and no other cast member matched her extraordinary talent. She was the true star of the show, and her heart-rending death scene left few dry eyes in the theater. The success of the show relies heavily on Evita and Che. Although Azotea did an outstanding job in her role, David O'Neil, who played Che, did not match her superior talents. Unfortunately O'Neil lacked the magic that Azotea had in her portrayal of Evita. Strong performances were given by Maurice Richard, who played Agustin Magaldi, the popular Buenos Aires tango dancer who seduced Evita at fifteen. Richard displayed fine vocal ability in his role as the lustrous tango singer and his vocal strength enhances the production immensely. The only disappointment was that the audience didn't get to hear him sing as much as I would have preferred.

The Seacoast Repertory Theater does much justice to Andrew Lloyd Webber's international stage success, "Evita". With multitalented actors like Candace Azotea and Maurice Richard, it makes an evening of extraordinary entertainment. Tickets can be ordered by phone by calling the box office at (603) 433-4472.

A &amp; E

The Pursuit of Happiness are (L to R) Brad Barker, Dave Gilby, Moe Berg, and Kris Abbot.

The Downward Road

by Ian Underwood
A&E Editor

A superficial listen to The Downward Road, the debut Mercury album from The Pursuit of Happiness, might suggest that the only thing that songwriter Moe Berg is interested in is giving you a boner.

Not so.

Though the tunesmith, described by a Toronto newspaper as "a deft ironist who hides his wit behind a Madonna smile," sometimes uses sexual imagery to bring a 90's realism to his expressions of affection, Berg qualifies his lustful outbursts with an intellectual twist that's practically foreign in the pop-flavored naivete of rock 'n' roll.

The Downward Road is a fifteen-song depiction of life complicated by romantic entanglements with a lethal combination of Murphy's Law and neurotic behavior.

It's an approach that distinguishes the Canadian quartet from the rest of the pack.

Hailing from Toronto, The Pursuit of Happiness is defined by a grinding guitar assault tossed with pseudo-bubblegum harmonies.

The album's openign track, "Cigarette Dangles," is a tale of calculated lust that has Berg wasnting to 'ride the big wave.' It segues into the obsessive "Nobody But Me" which combines slightly kinky behavior with overt desperation.

And just see if you can get "Pressing Lips," the album's token feel-good love song out of your head after you hear it!

Among the other highlights are a guest appearance by mentor Todd Rundgren on the instrumental "Love theme from TPOH," the remorseful "But I Do" featuring Paul McCandless from the jazz quartet, Oregon.

The only thing you won't find in The Downward Road are clues to Berg's own private life. "I've never been intrested in keeping a personal diary for the whole world to read," states Berg. "Most of the songs are made-up stuff."

The TPOH story begins in 1986 when the band gamered internation attention with a witty, independent single called "I'm an Adult Now." That was followed by two critically acclaimed albums produced by Todd Rundgren: Love Junk and One Sided Story.

Core members Moe Berg, Dave Gilby, and Kris Abbot were joined by Brad Barker in 1990 for the One Sided Story tour.

The fact the album was recorded when L.A. itself was immersed in riot-and-earthquake-plagued circumstances only heightened the direction of the album. "Los Angeles was the best possible locaton to record other than Bosnia Herzegovnia," says Berg.

If you like modern rock, this is an exceptional album which could steer you to your own pursuit of happiness!

UML Presents the Boston Village Gamelan

Press Release

The Center for the Arts at the University of Massachusetts Lowell will present a performance by the Boston Village Gamelan on Saturday, May 1 at 8:00 p.m. In addition to the performance, there will be a lecture/demonstration starting at 5:00 p.m., an Indonesian feast at 6:00 p.m. and a performance preview at 7:30 p.m. The lecture/demonstration and Indonesian feast will take place at the New England Folklife Center at the Boott Cotton Mills, Foot of John Street, Lowell. The preview and performance will take place in Durgin Hall on the University's south campus at the corner of Pawtucket and Wilder Streets.

Ethereal and hypnotic, Javanese music entrances you with an exotic, dreamlike allure. Eighteen performers led by two master Javanese musicians play hanging gongs, xylophones, hand drums, flutes and fiddles-over fifty instruments in all, made of gleaming bronze and red-lacquered teakwood-creating a glittering, colorful montage of sound and sight, with costumed Javanese dancers performing intricate, stylized traditional dances.

Along with being visually fascinating, this refined, densely-textured music is renowned for its serenity, dignity and demanding musical technique.

The Indonesian feast preceding the performance will be prepared by Cooking Culture, a Boston-area caterer serving regional menus from around the world. The lecture/demonstration will be presented by a Javanese dancer and Sam Quigley, Director of the Boston Village Gamelan and Keeper of Instruments at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.

Tickets for the performance are priced at $19/17/15 or $17/15/13, with an Early Bird Discount if purchased at least a week before the performance. Students tickets are priced at $9.50/8.50/7.50 and there is a special discount for WGBH members. Tickets for the talk/dinner/performance package are priced at $34/32/30, or $19.50/18.50/17.50 for students. To order tickets with MasterCard/Visa, call the Center at (508) 934-4444 weekdays between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.

This event is funded in part by the Lowell Historic Preservation Commission.

Little Shop of Horrors!

Press Release

UMass Lowell - The Off-Broadway Players will be putting on the show Little Shop of Horrors April 23-24 and April 30-May 1 in Mahoney Auditorium on South Campus at 8:00 p.m.

The show tells the story of the nerdy Seymour Krelbourne and his alien plant that feeds on human beings.

The show is by the same writers of the Disney classics Beauty and the Beast and The Little Mermaid and includes the hits "Somewhere That's Green" and "Suddenly Seymour." Tickets are $5 for adults and $4 for students and can be purchased at the door or by calling (508)934-5851.

Spring Carnival '93 - Schedule of Events
April 26 - May 1

- 4/26: Fireworks "Kick off to Spring Carnival!"
8:30 p.m. - South Campus Field
- 4/27: Denny Dent & his Two Fisted Art Attack
Noon - South Campus Quad
Spring Jam sponsored by RHA
6:00 p.m. - Midnight - Fox Den
- 4/28: Dave Binder "Solo Musician"
11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. South Campus Quad
- 4/29: RHA Ulympics
6:00 p.m. - Donahue Quad
Comedy Show! - Adam Sandler
8:00 p.m. - 10:00 p.m. Cumnock Hall
- 4/30: Spring Carnival! 11:00a.m. - 4:00 p.m.
* The Whailers in Concert *
w/Chucklehead & Spingo Freen and LOTS more!!!
- 5/1: Trip to Canobie Lake Park
11:00 a.m. from Fox, Smith, and South

Activities Commission
presents:Adam Sandlerthe "Cajun Man" from Saturday Night Live!Tickets free for UML
Students at the SIC's!
$3.00 for guests!

Abbey Road Tavern

933 Gorham St.

937-0255

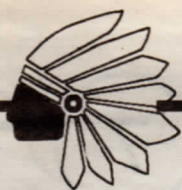

Sunday Nite: Karaoke 9pm-closing

Monday Nite: Rockin' Down the Road
Mon. 5th- "POWER BROKERS"

Thursday Nite: Luck of the Draw

Friday & Saturday Nite:
Weekends were made to party down the road!

CAREER CORNER

INTERNSHIPS - Below

NOTE: Internship info is available through the Career Planning and Placement Office, 203 Southwick Hall, North Campus. Plan to stop by to find out more details (ie. where to apply, specific skills, or background) on the positions that interest you.

Name of Organization	Department	Application Deadline	Date of Internship
Agway Inc.	Consumer Division	Submit resume	Summer
American Cancer Society	Community cancer control program	Submit resume	Fall and Spring
American International Group (AIG)	Human Resources, Accounting Actuarial, Underwriting	Submit resume	Semesters, Summer, January Intersession
The Boston Company	Mutual Funds/Corporate Finance Securities Management	Submit resume and dates avail.	During semesters, summer
The Boston Phoenix	Various	Call or submit resume	Summer
CIGNA Corporation	Actuarial, Accounting, Audit, Finance marketing, Customer Service, Systems	Summer-March 1, 1993 Co-op Cycles: Jan-June deadline: Dec 1992, July-Dec deadline: June	Summer, semesters and Jan intersession
Crown Systems, Inc.	MIS, Marketing	Submit resume	Open ended
Enterprise Rent-A-Car	Rental Offices-Management Trainee	Submit resume & Cover Letter	Summer, Semesters
EG & G, Inc.	Electrical Engineering	Submit resume	Summer, Semesters
First Night	Marketing, fundraising, accounting	Submit resume	Summer
Grant Thornton	Audit Department	Submit resume	Jan-April
Insurance Services Office, Inc.	Actuarial, development actuarial operations, actuarial data management and control	Last day of April	Summer
John Hancock	Financial Planning	Spring for fall, Early fall for spring	Semesters
Hertz Corporation	Automobile Rentals	Submit resume	Summer, Semesters, Jan Intersession
Lechmere, Inc.	Stores Division, Marketing Division		During the semester
Liz Claiborne, Inc.	Financial Area, Human Resources, Legal Department, Accounts Receivable, Letters of Credit and many others	Late April for summer August for Fall	Summer & Fall
Maine Yankee	Plant Engineering, Corp. Engineering, Computer, Reactor Engineering	End of July for Fall	Fall & Spring Semester
Massachusetts Republican Party	Hands on exp. with Republican State Committee	April 22, 1993	Summer
Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center	Various	Submit resume indicating Interest in internship program	Summer
Merrill Lynch & Co.	Global Information Services	Submit resume	During semesters, Summer
Morgan Stanley	Information Service Controllers, Internal Audit	Submit resume	Summer
Northwestern Mutual Life	Agency Department	Submit resume, no deadlines	Summer, Semesters, Jan Intersession
Norton Company	Engineering-various	Submit resume	During semesters, Jan. Intersession, Summers
Pfizer Central Research	Med Chem and Discovery Bio	Co-op Deadline: Nov. 13 June Deadline-May 7 Summer Session-Deadline March	Jan. to June July to Dec.
Pfizer Central Research	Medical Chemistry, Biology	April & November	Summer
Princeton University	Athletic Communications-Media relations, publication production, exposure in print & electronic media relations, news & feature writing.	April 26, 1993	August 1, 1993
Rockwell International-Rocketdyne Division	Engineering, Business, Finance, Graphics	Must request employment application	Semesters, Summer
Royal Prestige Northeast Inc.	Marketing, Advertising, Display	Call	Summer
Saks Fifth Avenue	Management and Corporate Merchandising	Submit resume	Semesters, Summer
Shearson Lehman Brothers	Securities Industry	Submit resume & cover letter	Various
Siemens Medical Systems, Inc.	Software development in the MRI/CT area	Submit resume	Semesters
Sony Corporations of America	All corp. groups (ie. acct., corp. communications, info.)	Submit resume	Semesters, Jan. Inter., Summer
Southwestern Co.	Various	Submit resume	Summer
U.S. Central Intelligence Agency		App. process takes 9 months apply early	Semesters, Summer
U.S. Department of State	Various	Nov. 1-Summer March 1-Fall & July 1-Spring	Summer, Fall, Spring
U.S. General Accounting Office	All	Submit resume	Semesters, Summer
WHDH-TV	Various	Call for interview	Summer, Fall
U.S. Peace Corps	Administration, recruitment, Public Affairs	Submit resume	Must be available for 1 year
Young & Rubicam, Inc.	Human Resources, Financial, Computers, Accounting, Advertising	Submit resume	Semesters, Summer
Center for Executive Effectiveness	Management Systems Marketing, Entrepreneurship, Library/Information Science, Public Relations	Call for further Information	Entrepreneurship

* CAR WASH *

When: Saturday, April 24, 1993
Where: The Heritage Farm Ice Cream Store
(Route 113)
Time: 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

ALL PROCEEDS WILL BENEFIT THE UMASS LOWELL FIELD HOCKEY TEAM. STOP BY AND TREAT YOURSELF TO AN ICE CREAM WHILE YOU WAIT FOR US TO WASH. IT'S FOR A GREAT CAUSE AT A GREAT PRICE.....ONLY 3 BUCKS PER VEHICLE!

Summer Positions

ARCH AND NEW HORIZONS PRO-GRAMS
OPENINGS FOR
TEACHERS, CASE AIDE, TUTORS
(subject to availability of funding)

The Arch Program and the New Horizons Program, collaborations between the University of Massachusetts Lowell Center for field services and studies and Lowell High School, are interviewing candidates for possible hiring in their summer institute (a five-week program, starting June 28 through July 31, 1993):

Teachers: Study Skills, Math, Science, Social Studies, and English for grades 10, 11, and 12. Knowledge of culture and/or one of the following languages is preferred: Khmer, Lao, Spanish or Vietnamese.

Case Aide: Graduating student in guidance counseling or community psychology is preferred. Working experience in urban high school setting is required.

Bilingual Tutors: Experienced in tutoring one of the following subjects: Math, Science, Social Studies, and English to urban high school students is required. Knowledge of culture and fluency in one of the following languages is preferred: Khmer, Lao, Spanish or Vietnamese.

Hours for all positions: Between 7:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m.
Monday through Friday, with occasional after school hours field trips or Saturday activities.

PLEASE SEND RESUME, NO LATER THAN APRIL 30TH, TO:
BARBARA GARABEDIAN, CFSS, READ HALL—WEST CAMPUS,
UNIVERSITY OF LOWELL, LOWELL, MA 01854
THE UNIVERSITY OF LOWELL IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY/AFFIRMA-TIVE ACTION,
TITLE IX, 504 EMPLOYER.

FACE THE REAL WORLD - DON'T LEAVE CAMPUS

A good graduate program can prepare you for the real world, turning your undergraduate degree into the hands-on experience, focused knowledge and cutting edge techniques you need to compete successfully in a tough economy. That's why we want to tell you about the MBA program at the UMass Lowell College of Management.

The College of Management is nationally accredited, reasonably priced and convenient. The Master of Business Administration, revised in 1992, has a cross-disciplinary curriculum focusing on the problems facing industries in New England. This program incorporates the integrated, problem-solving approach other schools are still planning.

Find out more about how the UMass Lowell MBA can help you prepare for the real world without leaving campus.

MBA Open Houses

April 28, 8:00 to 9:30 a.m.
May 5, 3:30 to 5:00 p.m.

College of Management Open Houses will be held in the Paley room, Southwick Hall, North Campus. Reservations requested. For reservations and more information, call ext. 2848.

REPRODUCE REPRODUCE REPRODUCE

AT THE UMASS LOWELL STUDENT
COPY
CENTER
CHECK OUT OUR EXPANDED SERVICES

Ball 212 - North - 934-3919 - FAX 394-3918

Economics Club Field Trip to the Federal Reserve in Boston

April 21, 1993 - Wednesday

BUS LEAVES @ 8:30 IN THE MORNING RETURNS @ 6 PM

*HEAR LECTURES ON MONETARY POLICY

*GET TOUR OF FEDERAL RESERVE

*SPEND FREE TIME AFTERWARD AT FANEUIL HALL

SIGN UP IN ECONOMICS OFFICE - SPACE IS LIMITED

OPEN TO ALL STUDENTS

College of Engineering Social

Wednesday, April 21, 1993

3:00-5:00 p.m.

ENGINEERING STUDENT

LOUNGE

"THE CAVE"

FALMOUTH BASEMENT

ALL ENGINEERING STUDENTS, FACULTY, AND STAFF PLUS ALL ACCEPTED FRESHMEN
FOR NEXT FALL INVITED TO ATTEND.

Attention All Students:

coming this summer the UMass Journal of Psychology.

Any student interested in working on this student publication should attend the introductory meeting on Thursday April 22nd. At 2pm in the psych. lounge.

If you can not make the meeting but are interested please contact Jeff at box 6184 or through the psych. Dept.

©1993 Tribune Media Services, Inc.
All Rights Reserved

ACROSS

- 1 Buttons and -
- 5 Keep-(persist)
- 9 - metabolism
- 14 Lat. lesson word
- 15 Disappeared
- 16 Pedro's pal
- 17 Places for pedestrians
- 19 Western show
- 20 Wage
- 21 Spate
- 23 Shell game item
- 24 Through
- 25 "A miss-good as..."
- 26 Headquartered
- 29 Sincere
- 31 Roman poet
- 32 Crag
- 33 Stellar
- 36 Turf

37 Occupants

- 39 Gr. letter
- 40 Stockholm's land
- 42 "Ulalume" writer
- 43 Big truck
- 44 Failed to pay a wager
- 46 Sea animal
- 47 Samoan seaport
- 49 Cereal grain
- 50 Make public
- 51 Sprees
- 53 Claims
- 57 Shrub
- 58 Strike obliquely
- 60 "evil"
- 61 Assert
- 62 Tied
- 63 Drove
- 64 Cozy home
- 65 Property transfer document

DOWN

- 1 Lowe voice
- 2 Leave out
- 3 Dry water-course
- 4 Strode
- 5 Port of Guam
- 6 Blabbed
- 7 Octopus' defense
- 8 Canopy
- 9 Atty.
- 10 Lover
- 11 Unimportant way
- 12 Rocket stage
- 13 Plunders
- 18 Tare or tansy
- 22 Baroque
- 24 Railing
- 26 Foreman
- 27 Acknowledge
- 28 Rattlesnake
- 29 Long Time

30 Mountain curve

- 32 Muscle
- 34 "He's making eyes."
- 35 Haunt
- 37 Message: abbr.
- 38 Doze off
- 41 Cul-de-sac
- 43 Spread
- 45 Moroccan king
- 46 Paintings
- 47 Mortify
- 48 Martinique volcano
- 50 Wide awake
- 52 Cupid
- 53 Summer drinks
- 54 Donate
- 55 Dueling weapon
- 56 Transmit
- 59 "Got a Secret"

Answer Next Week

Four Ways to Make the Most of Your Summer at UMass Lowell:

Summer Session I: May 24 - July 1
Summer Session II: July 12 - August 21

- Low-cost tuition
- Convenient location
- Flexible day and evening scheduling

For more information or a Summer Bulletin, call 934-2480 or stop by our Office in the basement of Cumnock Hall.

University of Massachusetts Lowell
Division of Continuing Education

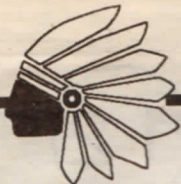

Photo of the week by Spike "Paul" 1993

The Off-Broadway Players present:
"LITTLE SHOP OF HORRORS"

by the same writers of "The Little Mermaid & Beauty & the Beast"

MAHONEY HALL AUDITORIUM, SOUTH CAMPUS

APRIL 23RD, AND 24TH

APRIL 30TH AND MAY 1ST

$4.00 FOR STUDENTS

$5.00 FOR NON-STUDENTS

TICKETS AVAILABLE AT THE DOOR AND ALL SIC'S

ALL SHOWS START AT 8:00 P.M.

Remodeled 2 and 3 bdrm apts.

Most with hwd. floors, ins. windows, new kit's and baths. Off street parking Conv. to campus $350 & $400 mo.

508-667-4209

Qualified students interested in intercollegiate transfer to the College of Health Professions and who have earned less than 45 credits, can submit the following materials for review by June 12, 1993:

1. 1993 Spring Semester Grade Report Documenting G.P.A. of 2.5 or better
2. Unofficial transcript of all courses taken at University of Massachusetts Lowell

Note: Students will be admitted to their desired majors or into undeclared health on a space available basis according to overall and science G.P.A. Some majors such as nursing and exercise physiology are extremely competitive and mandate that to obtain one of the available spaces the G.P.A. should be over 3.0. Students will be notified of decision one materials have been reviewed.

Apartments for Rent

June or Sept.
1/2/3/4/5 Bedroom
Most with Parking
Very Reasonable Rent
454-8648

SUPERCUTS®

New Pricing
Policy in Lowell

$6.95
SUPERCUT™

Good In:

LOWELL
25 CENTRAL ST.
458-8492

OPEN: MON.-SAT. 8-7, SUN. 12-5
Shampoo & Blow Dry at Additional Cost
Not Valid With Any Other Offer

STUDY & SAVE!

Students, faculty and staff. Your school ID is your ticket to savings in downtown Lowell. Just present a current school ID and receive the following specials and discounts at participating businesses. Offers in effect the entire school year!

School ID must be presented at time of purchase. Offers not valid with other sales or discounts.
 * Not to be used in conjunction with any other coupon or discount offer. Offer not valid on purchase of gift coins or gift certificates. Offer valid in Lowell store only.

Sponsored by the DOWNTOWN LOWELL
BUSINESS
ASSOCIATION
In cooperation with the
UMASS/LOWELL
STUDENT GOVERNMENT
ASSOCIATION

Promotional support given by ENTERPRISE BANK & TRUST COMPANY,
222 Merrimack Street.

1 BRIGHAM'S RESTAURANT
11 Kearney Square, 452-9976
Sandwiches, dinners, sundaes & sodas. 15% off

2 BURGER KING
16 Merrimack Street, 937-5858
Flame broiled your way.
20% discount on any order

3 THE USUAL RESTAURANT & LOUNGE
19 Merrimack Street, 454-3699
Fresh seafood, nightly entertainment.
10% off luncheon menu; no cover for nightly entertainment (21+)

4 DR. RICHARD ROBILLO
24 Merrimack Street, 458-8821
Optometrist. 10% discount on eye exams and glasses

5 HOUSE OF HALLMARK
25 Merrimack Street, 453-8071
Featuring a full line of Dept. 56.
10% off any regular priced item
(some exclusions do apply)

6 CHERRY, WEBB & TOURAINE
107 Merrimack Street, 458-4661
$5 off any regular priced item of $25 or more*

7 COED SPORTSWEAR
108 Merrimack Street, 970-0164
COED NAKED line of sportswear apparel, (opening in October).
10% discount on any purchase

8 WELLES EMPORIUM
175 Merrimack Street, 454-4401
Unique jewelry, clothing and gift items. 15% off purchases of $20 or more

9 SUBWAY
254 Merrimack Street, 934-9122
We bake our own bread.
Free soda and chips with footlong sub

10 LOWELL OPTICAL CO., INC.
11 Central Street, 452-9302
High fashion eyewear fit professionally. 15% discount on frames and/or lenses

11 SUPERCUTS®
25 Central Street, 458-8492
$1 off our regular $8.95 Supercut™

12 PIP PRINTING
82 Prescott Street, 458-8861
Resumes, color copies,
tickets, posters, etc.
4c copies, 15% off printing

13 LULL & HARTFORD
58 Prescott Street, 458-8311
Jerseys, uniforms and athletic footwear for all sports.
$5 off purchases of $25-$9.95, $10 off $60-$124.95, $20 off $125-$250

14 FLOWERS BY VOYER, INC.
24 Market Street, 453-2190
Unique arrangements, gourmet food & fruit baskets, balloons.
20% off any purchase, including prom & semi-formal arrangements

15 ESPRESSO PIZZA
220 Central Street, 452-8160
Pizza, subs, dinners.
10% off any purchase

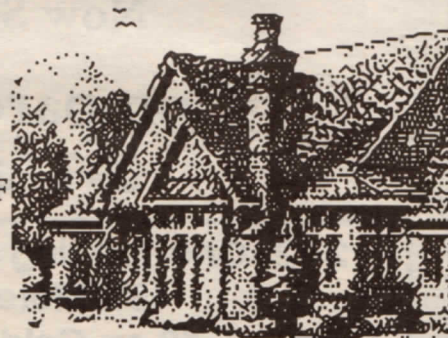

16 WASHINGTON SAVINGS BANK
30 Middlesex Street, 458-7999
Stop by for your free 4 foot "yardstick"

17 NORMAN'S MEN'S SHOP
60 Middlesex Street, 453-2897
Levis, B.U.M., Ocean Pacific,
Dockers. 10% off any purchase, including sale merchandise

18 THE PEANUT MAN
87 Church Street, 453-9166
Sweet and Salty Shoppe.
10% off any item in store

GOT THE DORMITORY BLUES?

WE ARE NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS AND DEPOSITS FOR 1993-1994 HOUSING. WE HAVE A WIDE VARIETY OF ROOMS, APARTMENTS, CONDOS, AND
SINGLE FAMILY HOMES.

UNIVERSITY MANAGEMENT CO.

104 UNIVERSITY AVENUE

(THE #1 RENTAL OFFICE FOR OFF CAMPUS STUDENT HOUSING)

(508)937-9327

AFFORDABLE, CONVENIENT, PROFESSIONALLY MANAGED

Bi-GALA

Bisexual, Gay and Lesbian Association of UMass Lowell

MEETS EVERY TUESDAY

for social activities support discussions

For more information, call the

Bi-GALA office

at 934-5078

Mondays 2-4 pm

6-8 pm

Thursdays 6-8:30 pm

Community Service Celebration

Sunday, April 25 at 11:00 a.m.

Cumnock Auditorium

If you wish to attend the award ceremony and the brunch, please call

Catherine Quinn at

ext. 3232 by April 20.

93-94 Community Service Fellowships

each with a stipend of $500.00.

They are available for University seniors who have demonstrated promise and leadership in community service.

SUMMER JOB START NOW

Catering Servers at:

Boston University Corporate Education Center

72 Tyng Rd. Tyngsboro, MA

15-30 hours/wk $6/hr

Shifts vary weekly

7am-3pm, 9-5, 10-2, 11am-7pm

Closed Sundays

Must be: •Customer service oriented

•Pleasant

•Energetic

•Sensible

•Courteous

Set tables, serve coffee & dessert

Clear tables, some food prep.

Contact: Sue Maki

649-9731 x243 leave message

Would you like to be the Editor of the Yearbook?

If you are interested in this job, Heather Prest, the present Editor, is looking to train someone for next year. Call 459-4075 and leave a message. You don't need to have past experience, just a lot of enthusiasm and drive. We can teach you the rest. Leave your name, phone number, and a message that you are interested.

Umass Lowell Equestrian Team

All welcome to attend our meetings in Fox 524
Thursdays
@ 6:00 p.m.

Come and see what we're all about!!
For more information call:

Kim 372-8279

Ron 458-8430

Allyson 251-2875

3-T'S X-PRESS

Now Serving Pizzas and Calzones

Compare 3-T's

and $$$ave

The Other People

2 12" One-Topping Pizzas
45% More Pizza
32 oz. Cold Pepsi
No Coupon Required
$5.95

2 10" One-Topping Pizzas
Lingering Hunger Pains
Parched Throat
Better Clip That Coupon
$5.99

Roommate Special

2 8" SUBS (Your Choice)
2 Bags of Chips
Liter of Soda
$5.95

CHEESEBURGER PLATE

Cheeseburger
French Fries
Cole Slaw
Can Of Soda
$2.95

Subs

Cheese Steak
Phil.Cheese Steak
Teriyaki Steak
BBQ Cheese Steak
Mushroom Steak
Pepper Steak
Onion Steak
Steak & Egg
Steak Bomb
Roast Beef
Turkey
Chicken Finger

Chicken Cutlet
Real Veal Cutlet
Bacon & Egg
Italian
American Meatball Western Tuna
Ham & Cheese
Cheeseburger
Hot Dog
Vegetarian

Side Orders:

Onion Rings
French Fries
Cajun Fries
Chicken Fingers
Mozzarella Sticks

Salads

Greek Chef
Plain
Tuna Antipasto

All Prices Do Not Include 5% Meal Tax

458-4012

Centers for Learning

Academic Support Services

Drop-In Tutoring

North Campus

Southwick 315

ACCOUNTING BIOLOGY
CALCULUS CHEM-ISTRY
FORTRAN
PHYSICS
PRECALCULUS
STATISTICS

South Campus

McGauvran

ANATOMY
&
PHYSIOLOGY

FRENCH GERMAN ITALIAN
MATH PERSPECTIVES
MICROBIOLOGY SPANISH

PICK UP YOUR SCHEDULE
934-2399

Campus Marketing Manager

- Execute on-campus marketing programs
- Training seminar in Boston this summer
- Learn valuable marketing skills
- Great pay/Flexible hours

CALL Bridget
@ 617-262-3724

INTERNATIONAL EMPLOYMENT

Make money teaching basic conversational English abroad. Japan & Taiwan. Make $2,000 to $4,000+ per month. Many provide room & board + other benefits! No previous training or teaching certificate required! For employment program call: (206) 632-1146 Ext. J5020

Chiefs' Excellence Banquet Honoring All UMass Lowell Coaches and Student-Athletes

•Wednesday: May 5, 1993 •

• Costello Gymnasium •

6:00 p.m.-9:30 p.m.

(proper dress required)

Banquet Schedule: 6:00 Reception

6:45 Buffet Style Dinner

8:15 Awards Ceremony

Cost: Senior Student-Athletes - Free

Simply pick up your ticket in the Athletic Business Office no later than May 1

•Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior Student-Athletes •
$10.00

If you participate in a University meal plan and have points remaining, you can utilize your points to pay for your meal or your parents' or friends' meals.

(Stop by the Athletic Business Office to obtain the necessary form.)

•parents and Guests•

$15.00

Tickets are available for sale in the Athletic Business Office.

Coles Express Inc.

PART-TIME WAREHOUSE WORKERS

Warehouse Workers--Coles Express has part-time positions available at our Lowell Terminal. We offer competitive pay. If you are interested in joining a winning team of professionals, please contact Peter Holmes at 800-433-2653 for more information.

An Equal Opportunity Employer

Your Final Exam

From Ford Motor Company

(answer true or false)

Included in the Ford and Mercury College Purchase Program are:

1. Pre-approved credit
2. Deferred first payment
3. $400 cash incentive
4. Down payment

(correct answers)

1. True 2. True 3. True 4. False

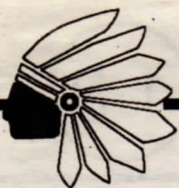

We made this exam easy to pass because getting a new car shouldn't be difficult. With the Ford and Mercury College Graduate Purchase Program, there's no down payment on eligible new Ford and Mercury vehicles if you qualify and finance through Ford Credit. You may even get the benefit of a deferred 1st payment (in states where allowed). You'll also get a $400 cash incentive regardless of whether you buy or lease. You can opt to use it toward your purchase or lease, or keep the cash.

You may qualify for the program if you earn a bachelor or advanced degree between January 1, 1993 and December 31, 1993, or are a graduate student enrolled during the same period.

Simply visit your local Ford or Mercury dealership or call 1-800-321-1536 for more information.

MAGIKON XVI

April 23-25

Fox 506

April 23: Friday 7 p.m. to midnight

April 24: Saturday 7 a.m. to midnight

April 25: Sunday 7 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Come for a weekend of roleplaying games, card games, board games, movies, heaping mounds of popcorn, and oodles of fun. For more information call ext. 5059 or stop by the office at Fox 506.

Win $125.00 !!!

Celebrating Diversity at UMass Lowell
Commuter Lounge Mural Contest

Sponsored by: University Life and the Student Government Association
The rules are:

1. You must currently be a registered student at UMass Lowell to enter.
2. Entries must be drawn on an 11" x 17" sheet with name and box on the back.
3. Entries must be submitted with an entry form to the Office of University Life in Cumnock hall by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, April 23, 1993.
4. Winners will be chosen based on creativity, originality, simplicity, and suitability in best depicting a celebration of the many facets of diversity at UMass Lowell.

"The Great Jelly Bean Giveaway"

A Fundraiser to benefit Homeless Shelters in Lowell

When: April 1st-April 26th

Sponsored by Cultural Pluralist

Cost: $1.00 per ticket

Prizes.....Prizes.....Prizes.....Prizes.....Prizes!!!!!!

Jellybeans! Sundaes! Passes to dance club! Lunch at Johnnies!

Supercuts! Tee-shirt from UMass Lowell Bookstore! CD's!

Free week of work-out with Holiday Fitness Center and much, much more!!!!!!

Enter as many times as you wish but in this contest we are all winners!

The Latter Day Saint Student Association

will hold its elections on April 21 at 7:30 p.m. in Fox building room 702. LDS students are especially welcome to attend.

Keith C. Johnson Box 621

UMass Lowell Catholic Center

Mass Schedule

Monday	4:30 p.m.
Tuesday	4:30 p.m.
Wednesday	12:30 p.m.
Thursday	4:30 p.m.
Sunday	7:30 p.m. 9:00 p.m.

Catholic Center
Catholic Center
Catholic Center
Catholic Center
Concordia
Fox 301

To All Graduate Students:

The last day to clear out for a June degree is April 29th at 5:00 P.M.

Even if you gave your coordinator your name as a prospective graduate, you must still come to the Graduate School to complete the clearance process.

MARCHING BAND...

...INTERESTED???

Call 934-3883, or write to: Marching Band
Durgin Hall, College of Fine Arts
UMass-Lowell, 01854

UNPLANNED PREGNANCY

Consider All Your Options

We Support Your Choice

Counseling, Housing, and Medical Assistance

Call Toll Free and Ask for Carolyn

1 (800) 533-4346

Adoption Resources
Boston, MA

Confidentiality Respected

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Career opportunities in a rapidly expanding Bedford based leading provider of internationally known high quality personal computer hardware. We are a high growth, fast paced, technologically driven national direct marketer of PC hardware and service parts, as well as a national computer repair depot.

COMPUTER SALES

Enjoy the high earnings potential of an inside sales person. It is the philosophy of this high performance company to encourage its employees to develop professionally in a dynamic environment using state-of-the-art computer technology to enhance their sales and product skills. You will help our customers meet current needs for computer hardware and their electronic sub assemblies and will develop prospects in business to business relationships. You must have a strong desire to grow, be motivated and have a capacity for hard work. The rewards reflect your success.

Technical hardware competency and hardware technical knowledge at the familiarity level or greater of our product line are required. Our PC hardware product line consists of systems, CPU's, monitors, keyboards, printers and sub assemblies such as logic boards, disk drives, power supplies, etc.

Sales or customer service experience in any industry is a major plus.

MBA

INVENTORY/MATERIALS MANAGEMENT

This is a senior level opportunity for an operations experienced MBA. You will create, develop and execute materials requirements planning and inventory management programs and procedures to meet corporate goals.

You must be a hands-on, computer literate, working professional with extensive experience in sophisticated computer inventory management, demand forecasting and material planning skills. Strong creative abilities in materials requirements planning and production planning are major requirements. You must be technically knowledgeable about computer hardware and their electronic components and be able to evaluate purchasing opportunities in a deal making environment.

Our environment is challenging and positive within an exciting growth industry.

If you are a career achiever and can make a contribution to this dynamic entrepreneurial company, please send resume and details of your hardware technical knowledge to:

Pre-Owned Electronics, Inc.
205 Burlington Road
Bedford, MA 01730
Attn: Linda Gagnon

Did You Know That ....

50% of all

HIGHWAY DEATHS are ALCOHOL-RELATED?

Think About
It!

It's Not Worth
It!

Sponsored by the S.E.P.
Committee

APARTMENTS

JUNE/SEPT 93

2/3 ROOMS $335-395

3/4 ROOMS $425-675

452-2222

Summer Positions

ARCH AND NEW HORIZONS PROGRAMS

OPENINGS FOR

TEACHERS, CASE AIDE, TUTORS

(subject to availability of funding)

The Arch Program and the New Horizons Program, collaborations between the University of Massachusetts Lowell Center for field services and studies and Lowell High School, are interviewing candidates for possible hiring in their summer institute (a five-week program, starting June 28 through July 31, 1993):

Teachers: Study Skills, Math, Science, Social Studies, and English for grades 10, 11, and 12.

Case Aide: Graduating student in guidance counseling or community psychology is preferred. Working experience in urban high school setting is required.

Bilingual Tutors: Experienced in tutoring one of the following subjects: Math, Science, Social Studies, and English to urban high school students is required. Knowledge of culture and fluency in one of the following languages is preferred: Khmer, Lao, Spanish or Vietnamese.

Hours for all positions: Between 7:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, with occasional after school hours field trips or Saturday activities.

Please send resume, no later than April 30th, to:

Barbara Garabedian, CFSS, Read Hall—West Campus,
University of Lowell, Lowell, MA 01854

The University of Lowell is an equal opportunity/affirmative action, Title IX, 504 employer.

Buy it. Sell it. Get it. in the UMLCLASSIFIEDS

BOOKS FOR SALE BOOKS WANTED GENERAL

Hunka Hunka Burnin' Love. Join Masspirg's Endangered Species Campaign. Thurs. Rm 339 3:00 SC. S.U.B. Remember, we're not the only one's on this EARTH.

HOUSING

Rm for rent in Vict. hse near S. Campus. Share kit., bat., lvg. rm., w/2 students. M/F, non-smoking, Jr./Sr./ Grad. $210/mo.+ util. Call Mike 937-9311, Lowell.

Married Student housing 1 mi. from N. Campus. Inquire at Univ. Life.

Room For Rent
Share single family hse w/ other UML students. Full kit., livg rm., 2 bath, private bdrm., washer & dryer. $240/+util.(lg)-$165/+util.(sm). Call Kuan (508)937-0293.

Live For Free
Help manage apartments for students. Call Steve after 6:00 (508) 692-7199

Wanted:Apartment for one student. Must be near North Campus. No roommates. Have own furniture. Call 441- 1496

Furnished room for rent clean, quietand non-smoking.$180 to $250 per month including utils. One minute walk to N.Campus library available Junel leave message 453-8554

ROOMMATES

WILL SHARE HOME Belvedere sect. Lowell. Professional Woman will share Cape style home. Frpl., yard, cable. M/F (508)452-1755.

Wanted: quiet non-smoker to share 3 bdrm victorian 2 family house in Lowell highlands. $233/mo. + 1/3 util. 1 mo security deposit required. Call Perry: (508) 934-9388, leave message.

Roommate Wanted
1 bd. in a 2br apart. in Merrimack Plaza,close to campus.$260 a month, incl. ht/hw, w/w carpet, ac,security,laundry and maintenance.Call Younus at (508) 459-9539

JUST REDONE ROOM TO RENT
Have your own room and share kitchen,LR, and bath w/ 3 others. Pleasant environment(clean & quiet) for convience can't be beat- near S.Campus, laundry, store, bus, etc. $180 plus utils. 452-4101 or 692-7199

Wanted: Roommates for the 93-94 year to share 2 bedroom furnished condo' on Riverside St. across from

MERCHANDISE

Bedroom Set
Headboard, dresser, bureau; $100/b.o. Also, twin frame & headboard; $20/b.o. Call 453-5381.

For Sale: Blaupunkt car amp, 120watts/ch, $150. Pyle Driver "Pounder" full range spkr., $75. Frontier car cd/tuner, $100. 1982 Datsun 200sx, no radio, needs rear axle, else solid car, $200. Sony 8mm camcorder # FX411(new $899) w/2 extra batteries, $500. Call Fred, 454-7095.

50 Watt Kenwood car stereo (KRC-3004) 12-FM presets, Dolby B, MTL, Auto Reverse cassette. Listen to radio while ff/rew tape, 1 RCA jack. Mint condition, list over $250 yours for $120. Orig. Receipt aval.Instilation negotiable. Call Jeff 692-2621 an leave message or box 6184.

FOR SALE

Partly used box of multi-grade, fiber based , variable contrast, unexposed photography.If interested, call 934-5834.

(2) Pyle 10" Subwoofers, inc. 2 way crossovers, steel mesh grills. 2 unfinished matching truck style boxes. 1" voice coil, 20 oz. magnet for deep bass. 150 watts max pow. Over $70 ea. to replace only $80 for pair or $45 ea. A great addition to any system. Call Jeff 692-2621 an leave message or box 6184.

FOR SALE
One brand new, unused nursing uniform for sale. Call for more information at (508) 256-4785.

EMPLOYMENT

College Pro Painting is hiring for summer employment for the Westford, Chelmsford, and Billerica areas. 40+hrs/wk. For info. call Mike Banus 692-5256.

Administrative Assistant
Responsible student needed to assist with cash reconciliation, financial record keeping and provision of services to commuter students. Finance/ accounting background preferred, cash handling experienced required. For more information contact: Office of Student Activities & Commuter Services, McGauvran 224, X5001

Greeks & Clubs

RAISE A COOL $1000
IN JUST ONE WEEK!
PLUS $1000 FOR THE MEMBER WHO CALLS!
No obligation. No cost.
And a FREE IGLOO COOLER if you qualify. Call 1-800-932-0528, Ext.65

Students!

School year employment
The Office of Residence Life is offering jobs for UMass Lowell students for the next Academic Year (1993-94).
Maintenance Assistants:
Assist in the daily upkeep of the residence halls. Position requires mechanical aptitude, willingness to move heavy objects,high level of integrity, experienced painting and light carpentry experience a plus. Afternoon hours and own transportation necessary.
School year Maintenance Assistant positions are available in exchange for on-campus housing. See Andrew Scribner-MacLean at the Office of Residence Life in Cumnock hall for a complete job description. Applications are available immediately and are due April 9, 1993, at 12 noon.

CARPOOLS

Student needs ride from Methuen to UML campus beginning Spring semester. Will share expenses. Contact Dean Ellen Duggan in Cumnock Hall or call 934-2100.

SPORTING EQUIPMENT

FOR SALE-Helix stair climber w/ heart pulse monitor. Like new. $130. Call Danielle(508)897-8666.

LOST

Small blue leather pocket book lost on Thursday March 25 in So 404. If found please call (508) 934-2563

FOUND

Calculator in Ball 214 during exams. Must identify to claim. See Dean Ellen Duggan in Cumnock Hall.

Volunteers Needed

Lowell Food Pantry. 1 hr./week. Call David x6360.

Volunteer Organizers

The United Electrical, Radio & Machine Workers of America is currently looking for volunteers to help out with its spring campaign to organize factories in the Lowell area. Volunteers are needed to help leaflet and to visit workers interested in organizing their workplaces. Campaign begins May 1st. For more information: UE, 516A Dorechester Ave., So. Boston (617) 268-4982

PERSONAL

Ramsey you're seven years old now, I think we should tell you that you're named after a condom.

Hey, Derek. I'm sure the Connector is a fun place to be, but you do have classes to go to. You have to get to work on those all important color class assignments. Consider this your kick in the pants!
—Mighty Darius

4/12: Hi Kerry! Happy Birthday! So, how does it feel to be 20? <smile>

Hava Pest:
Read your E-Mail little girl.
Stunod Niknud

SERVICES

Massage-Accupuncture by apt. Professional, Sliding scale fees, Out calls arranged. 458-3623 & leave message.

Private tutoring available in fin., math, bus. Call Angela x2801 or 687-0577.

Math Tutor Avail.evenings & weekends. $25.00/hr. Call Neal at 508-659-2565 or 508-453-7699.

STUDENT COPY CENTER
Copies 5¢, bond paper 6¢, transparencies, laser printouts.NC-Ball 212, Ph 934-3919, FAX 934-3918; Open M-Th 8am-7pm, Fr 8am-5pm.

Pepper mace
1-800-GET-MACE
...Just in Case

Professional Resumes-Original + ten copies, $35, Same Day, $45. Cover letters, $5. Typing Services-$5 per page, Same Day, $7. (508) 937-9071.

AUTOS

'92 Mustang LX 5.0 Loaded, dark-green. Off road exhaust, pulleys, shifter & more. $13,500 No reasonable offer refused. Call Mike at 683-7711 after 2pm.

1985 Nissan Sentra
Selling for parts only!!Body
Body condition is good/ in and out. Call Tracy at 934-6261. Asking $400 or best offer.

For Sale
1985.Pontiac Fiero
Must sell
42,000 miles, exel. cond.
Alpine "pull out" CD system clean car $2500/B.O.
Call Chris 934-6109

Mac User's and Owners

Want to trade some games. I have tons of awesome games including Flight Sim 4.0, Red Baron,Checkmate,Glider 4.0and Spectre 1.0.1 I have a Mac IIVx. My games will run on any Mac II. Call Mike at (508) 663-9490

CONNECTOR OFFICE HOURS:

8:00AM - 4PM, M - W
8:00AM - 2PM, TH & F
x5009

Advertisement is FREE to all registered UML students for two weeks of publication. Ads will be automatically removed unless notification of renewal is given prior to 4pm Wednesday before publication.

FOR NON-STUDENTS and Local Businesses:
Effective February 4, 1993, the cost for Classified ads is $5.00 per column inch. This consists of 7 lines of approximately 25 characters. Payment must be pre-paid.

National rates will remain $10.00 per column inch on the new 6 column page.

Club Meetings

The UMass Lowell Equestrian Team
All are welcome to our meetings in Fox 524 on Thursdays at 6:00p.m.

The Latter Day Saint Student Association
will hold its elections on April 21 at 7:30 p.m. in Fox building room 702. LDS students are especially welcome to attend.

Would you like to be the editor of the yearbook?

If you're interested, Heather Prest,the present editor, is looking to train someone for the position. No experience is needed. All you need is enthusiasm and the yearbook will help with all the rest.Call 459-4075 for more info.

Commencement Ushers needed

If you wish to volunteer your services as a Commencement Usher on Sunday, June 6, 1993, please sign up in the Office of university Life in Cumnock hall - (North Campus) no latter than May 7, 1993.

Bi-GALA
Bisexual, Gay and Lesbian Association of UMass Lowell MEETS EVERY TUESDAY for social activities support discussions
For more information, call the Bi-GALA office at 934-5078 on Mondays
2:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m.
6:00 p.m.-8:00 p.m.
Thursdays

6:30 p.m.-8:30 p.m.

Personal Care Attendant(s) Needed September 1993

An incoming freshman student will require a Personal Care Attendant (PCA) in order to live on campus. This PCA will help the student with his daily routine such as getting ready for the day and preparing for bed. The successful candidate must be mature, responsible and dependable. References may be required. Interested students should contact Den Ellen Duggan in Cumnock Hall (x2100) for details concerning compensation, duties, training, interview and selection process. A personal interview with the student and his parents will be required.

National Society of Black Engineers

Elections for 1993-94 Club Officers will be held Tuesday, April 20, 1993 at 3:00 p.m. in Southwick 205.

Nominations for the Sociological Society's executive board are now open for fall semester. If interested, please stop by the Sociology Dept., or call for more information at x4306. Elections for the fall society will be held May 3rd at 11:00 in the Sociology Dept.

Muslim Student Association (MSA)
The weekly MSA meeting will be held on Friday evening from 5:30 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. in Fox 518. For more information and/or help, feel free to contact the Muslim Students Association at Ext. 5079, KhanR@woods, AmellalH@woods, Ahafeez@cs.

The Chess Club
Will be having its weekly meetings on Thursdays at 6:00 p.m. in the Fox Den. Stop by for a game.

Attention Club/Organization

The club room allocation process for the 1993-94 school year has been completed. The following rooms have been declared open for occupation on a first come, first serve basis:
Fox Student Union:
Rooms 516, 517, 613A, 622A and 623
Mary McGauvran Student CenterRoom 357
Applications for the available club rooms must be returned to the S.G.A. Office, Fox Hall, Room 411.

Band Notes...

The UMass Lowell Marching Band encompasses all playing levels... the band meets Monday, Wednesday and Friday during the Fall semester.

Current members:
The UMass Lowell Marching Band spring gathering has been set for April 30, 1993 at 7:15 pm. Check your boxes or call x3883 for more information....

The Board of Representatives will be meeting again on April 28 at 5:30 in Durgin 309...

For more information call (934-3883) or write to: Marching Band 1 Wilder Street Durgin Hall, UMassLowell Lowell, MA 01854

ALTHOUGH our heroes are Victorious at Carnegie, out of Amore for OSAKA PUNKU...
Trophy not GUN!
Trophy Suck

今日は!
トマの新しい栽培法
が見つかった!
物産品の栽培法は
普通のひとと違う!
That's swell!
全通カ!

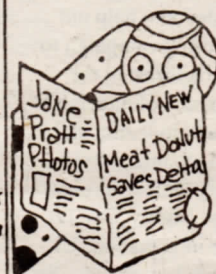

MEANWHILE, at A secret Base
Near HORSE LEG, UTAH...
Rosco Gat, Listen up!
You've Got one chance to redeem Your mis-Begotten Life!

CDSEL...

AND Somewhen During THE NAPOLÉONIC wars IN RUSSIA...
NASA's MIAOT'S VOIKA AMAZO!
Block-ice

AND over there is Hell Boy's Secret Encephalo-ray Gun, and there's Duke's secret Jane Pratt Photos, and over there ....

ROSco Gat!
THIS IS YOUR NEW Home!

«Say, You're kinda Neat.
Where's the Ultimate Device??»
Well....OK!

HEY KIDS AND COOL KATS! If you Give a TOSS, JOIN THE ELDORADO RAMPAGE FUN KLUB!
Write to Box #5613 and MAYBE You can Be PART of THE PSYCHO-BILLY RUKUS.
We'll send you some CRAP. (include U'r Box #).

BADGE OF HONOR by Rebecca Kemp

Hey Mitter*, What did the lady badger do when she was surrounded by blind, two-headed, purple rats?...

SCREEEE!

She FLIPPED-OUT!!

WURB?

SNURT!

* If you recall, that's the terrible needer's name. - ???!! - It's the thing with wings!

HISS

HA!

cheeeeeeep!

HA!

PING

That sword...

HI! I'm Vishia
Badge. I'll have you free in a jiffy!

REENT

OK, Guys, ya gotta be 18 years or older for this scene.

TACKSFRIE, N.H.

Nice Butterflies. Mi Ke Aroune?
Beg Pardon?
He wants to Kidnap
Rush Limbaugh. I'm going along because of my close-combat skills
More Flowers
y'think?

Explain.
It's Brilliant! We're going to tow him out to sea and cast him adrift in front of a Japanese Whaling Fleet.
He'll have to choose between being harpooned and eaten or being rescued by "Greenpeace," thus indebting him to a group which he mocks.

I suppose rational activity is right out?
You're saying I should just use chloroform and leave the .45 and grenades behind?
How about attacking him in print?
Come again?

by Michael Gallant John's starting a paper, he wants you to be a contributing writer. It's an attempt at statewide Freedom of the Press.
That too well, I'm in-Sound's good, you sure it's not just an excuse to wear a press tag on his Sox cap and Scam drinks and free passes?

M. Gallant

ALEX TREBEK

SIGOURNEY WEAVER

A L I E N 3

Wayne

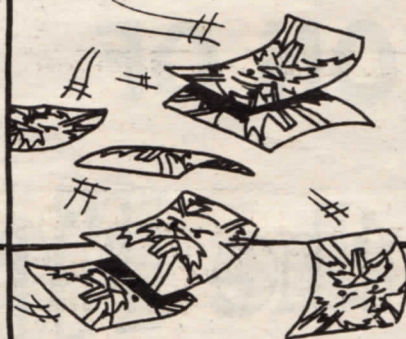

By: Dave Sockey

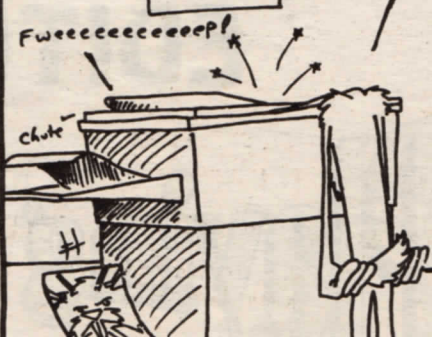

Eaupp!!! Doe! ow,ow

Fweeeeeeeeeeep!
chute!
Fweeeeeeeeeeep!
chute
Fweeeeeeeeeeep
chute!
Fweeeeeeeeeeep!

ow! ow! ow! ow!
ow! ow! ow! ow!

COPIES 10¢

out! out!
out! out!
out! out!

OFFICE OF RECREATIONAL SPORTS

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

The Office of Recreational Sports is currently accepting applications for the following positions:

Facility Supervisor
Intramural Supervisor
Sports Officials
Facility Staff
Lifeguards
Certified Aerobics Instructors
Karate Instructors
Fitness Analysts
Sailing Instructors
Strength & Training Instructors
First Aid & CPR Instructors
Dance Instructors

Positions available for Summer & Fall 1993!

Apply soon-positions are limited (and many applicants)!!

DID YOU GET YOUR MOST RECENT EDITION OF

Playing the Field

Office of Recreational Sports

I N
S
T
I
T
U
T
E

O
N

STRESS REDUCTION FOR DAILY LIVING

THURSDAY, APRIL 22ND
12 NOON - 1 PM

NUTRITION

THURSDAY, APRIL 29TH
12 NOON - 1 PM

Both class instructions are being conducted in the Costello Classroom

Any questions?
CALL THE RECREATIONAL SPORTS
OFFICE
934-2348

P
H
Y
S
I
C
A L

F
I
T
N
E
S
S

MINIATURE GOLF

Mens & Womens

Entries Open:
April 12th

Entries Close:
April 21st

sponsored by the Office of Recreational Sports

HORSESHOES

ENTRIES OPEN:
APRIL 12th

ENTRIES CLOSE:
APRIL 21st

Mens, Womens & Co-Rec

sponsored by the Office of Recreational Sports

ANY QUESTIONS?

CALL THE RECREATIONAL SPORTS OFFICE AT 934-2348

1993 U Mass Lowell Softball & Baseball Stats

Valid Through April 14, 1993      Baseball Record: 9 - 6      Softball Record: 0 - 5

1993 University of Massachusetts Lowell Baseball Roster

No.	Name	Position	Class	At Bats	Runs	Hits	Avg.	HR's	Stls	Wks
1	Mark Deschenes	SS	Fr.	52	12	15	.288	1	1	3
2	Rob Aziz	3B/2B	Sr.	56	21	22	.393	0	13	12
4	Dennis Martell*	2B	Jr.	7	3	1	.143	0	1	2
5	Jim Landry	OF	Fr.	4	2	2	.500	0	0	0
6	Dave Moore*	3B/SS	Jr.	8	1	1	.125	0	0	1
8	Chris Lyman	C	Fr.	15	1	5	.333	0	0	2
9	Mike Lane*	OF	Sr.	21	4	4	.190	0	0	4
10	David Zampese	OF	Jr.	8	2	1	.125	0	0	1
12	Dave Hebert*	OF	Jr.	59	19	20	.339	0	2	6
13	Chris Conroy*	2B	Jr.	53	11	16	.302	0	0	2
14	Mike Cruff*	C	So.	12	4	6	.500	0	0	1
15	Matt Boyle*	3B/OF	Jr.	43	13	15	.349	1	1	7
17	Kevin Loftus*	1B/3B	Sr.	59	18	21	.356	3	2	7
19	Keith Qualter	1B/P	Jr.	34	8	8	.235	0	1	4
22	Matt Moran*	C	Sr.	38	10	11	.289	1	1	9
24	Derek Graham*	OF	Jr.	12	4	4	.333	0	1	1
26	Sean Tebbetts	1B	So.	3	2	0	.0	0	0	.1
31	Ken Pires	OF	Jr.	58	14	23	.397	3	3	10
32	Paul Magaletta	1B	Fr.	0	0	0	.0	0	0	0
Team Totals				542	149	175	.325	9	26	73

No.	Pitchers	W - L	Class	IP	H	R	ER	BB	SO	ERA
3	Brian Hanson*	1 - 1	Sr.	21	21	16	12	5	14	5.1
11	Dave DiCenso*	2 - 0	So.	22	13	9	4	17	10	1.6
16	Aaron Dupont	0 - 1	Fr.	7	7	4	3	5	8	3.9
19	Keith Qualter	0 - 0	Jr.	3	2	1	1	2	2	3
20	Todd Keeney*	2 - 1	Jr.	16	20	12	8	10	12	5.4
21	Kevin Rourke*	1 - 1	So.	13	15	9	9	9	13	7.2
23	Mark Bakke*	0 - 1	Jr.	2.1	5	5	4	6	0	6.7
27	Jason Matthews*	0 - 0	Jr.	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
28	Don King*	2 - 0	Jr.	21	14	5	3	4	18	1
29	Scott Marshall*	1 - 0	Sr.	11	9	10	9	7	7	7.4
30	Jamie McCabe*	1 - 0	Jr.	7.2	6	10	6	6	10	14
Team Totals				123	112	81	59	71	94	5.5

Head Coach: Jim Stone, Springfield '60 (27th season)

Assistant Coaches: Ken Connerty, Joe Luis, Scott Johnson, Dave Battaglia

Captains: Brian Hanson, Matt Moran

1993 University of Massachusetts Lowell Softball Roster

No.	Name	Pos	Class	B/T	At Bats	Runs	Hits	Avg.	HR's	Stls	Wks
3	Nikki Hoebeke*	2B	So.	S/R	16	2	3	.188	0	1	0
4	Sue DuBois	Of/Inf	So.	R/R	8	0	2	.250	0	0	0
6	Kim Sullivan*	P	So.	L/R	9	1	3	.333	0	0	0
7	Kelly Beaudoin	C	Fr.	R/R	11	1	2	.182	0	1	0
12	Joanne McNamara* P		Jr.	R/R	0	0	0	.000	0	0	0
13	Janine Davey*	3B	Jr.	S/R	6	0	1	.167	0	0	0
14	Laurie Shaw*	OF	So.	R/R	16	3	6	.375	1	0	0
15	Chris Staples	Of/Inf	So.	R/R	0	0	0	.000	0	0	0
16	Laurie Zanca*	Of	So.	R/R	15	2	4	.267	0	0	0
17	Carolyn Beaulieu*	Of	Sr.	R/R	16	2	5	.313	0	0	0
18	Jenn Whipple	P	So.	R/R	0	0	0	.000	0	0	0
20	Joanne Duggan*	C	So.	R/R	2	0	1	.500	0	1	0
22	Sharon Emmett*	1B	Sr.	S/R	11	0	3	.273	0	1	1
23	Donna Mills	SS	So.	R/R	16	1	3	.188	0	0	0
Team Totals					126	12	33	.262	1	4

* -- Returning Letterpersons (9)

Head Coach: Donna Tanner

Assistant Coach: Ann Leonard

Captain: Sharon Emmett

Sports Events This Week

Baseball

Tue April 21	at New Hampshire College (DH)*	1:00PM
Fri April 24	New Heaven (DH)*	Noon
Mon April 26	Bentley College	3:00PM
Tue April 27	at Merrimack College	3:30PM

* -New England Collegiate Conference Games (DH) -Designated Hitter

Softball

Tue April 20	at New Hampshire College (DH)*	2:00PM
Thr April 22	at Stonehill (DH)	3:00PM
Sat April 24	at Bridgeport (DH)*	1:00PM
Mon April 26	at American Int'l College (DH)	3:00PM

* -New England Collegiate Conference Games (DH) -Designated Hitter

Tennis

Tue April 20	Bentley College	3:00PM
Thr April 22	New England Championships	TBA
Fri April 23	New England Championships	TBA
Sat April 24	New England Championships	TBA
Sun April 25	New England Championships	TBA

Red Sox Clinch First Place

At least most newspapers would have you think So!

by Christopher Meelia
Sports Editor

Don't be fooled, this headline is purely fictional. And to make a long article short, don't plan on seeing this headline next September, because it will not happen.

For those of you who are die-hard Sox fans, I apologize for the ridiculous media hype that has already surrounded the Red Sox and made them look like they have a chance this season. They don't!

I assure you though, the Connector will not make any false promises or overblown predictions. In fact, as the sports editor I feel it's my duty to outline the general principles the Connector Sports Staff adheres to regarding the Red Sox.

Here are our policies:

- We will not make marginal prospects, like Tim Lincecum, seem like franchise players.

- We will not predict that pitchers who have lifetime losing records, like Matt Young, will suddenly become 20 game winners with the Red Sox.

- We will never sympathize with any injured player who is too hurt to play baseball, but healthy enough to drive his BMW.

- And finally, we will never predict a "Big Season" from the Sox when it is apparent they will not have a big season, and especially when they get clobbered in the pre-season.

Now, let's face some facts. The Red Sox are not that strong this year. It doesn't take a UML degree to realize that. The truth is the Red Sox are having a rebuilding year. In case you forgot, they came in LAST PLACE last year! Don't get me wrong, I love the Sox as much as the next guy. I just happen to be a rational individual.

As far as all the ridiculous headlines go, call me boring if you must, but I just can't get excited simply because the Red Sox have a winning record after ten games. Sure, it beats a losing season, but can we please put an end to all the hype about First Place!

I think rapper Chuck D (Public Enemy) summed it up best when he sang "Don't believe the hype." It seems like everyone is jumping on the Red Sox bandwagon already.

Lets not forget, even if the Sox do manage to crawl out of the cellar, they still have to beat our neighbors to the north. In case you forgot, Toronto did win the World Series last year.

OK, ok, so now I probably look like a Red Sox basher. Not true at all. I think Clemens and Viola are both in for big seasons. With any luck they will both get 20 wins. Hesketh will probably begin to emerge as a force on the mound and post 15 or so victories. Beyond that, I don't see many positive points regarding the Sox pitching staff. I can't see the bullpen squeezing out many more than 20 victories. If my math is accurate that adds up to roughly 75 wins, which is not bad - but it's not exactly pennant-winning material.

Will this, once again, be the fate of the Red Sox?

I think both Greenwell and Vaughn will have big years, but on the other hand Rivera and Cooper will not. Dawson should fit in nicely and add some power to the lineup, but Boggs' consistent productivity will be missed, and very tough to replace.

Some of the young players have some real potential, like Fletcher and Valentin, but the future is in their hands, not the present. Until they come around, don't expect any miracles, especially the ones you are promised in the papers every week!

For now we'll have to make due and be happy that the future looks bright. It's not all that bad, we have the most nostalgic park in all of baseball, and the most potent pitcher in the league in Roger Clemens.

Now if we can just convince Gorman not to trade away all the young talent, we could be watching a winner again in a few years.

Answers to last week's sports quiz:

#1 Jim Calhoun, #2 Hank Gathers, #3 Rumeal Robinson, #4 Eddie Pinkney, #5 David Thompson, #6 Sidney Wicks, #7 Anton Carr, #8 Pete Maravich, #9 Kentucky, #10 Louisville
Better luck this week!

SPORTS

Sports Trivia Quiz

And the winner is..... nobody!

Hello again sports fans. For reasons beyond my comprehension there was no sports trivia quiz winner last week. Was my quiz too difficult, or was this just a case of apathy at U Mass Lowell? Well, baseball season is here again, and it's time to sharpen your knowledge of baseball trivia. Once again a free burnout special goes to the first person to answer all ten correctly. Just bring your answers to me (Chris Meelia) at the connector office. If I'm not here mark the time and date on your submission and leave it in the sports editor mailbox. Here is your chance to get a free lunch, last week I had to eat it myself! By the way, have you tried the teriyaki steak and cheese subs? Highly recommended!

- 1) He managed the Kansas City Royals to a World Series Championship over the St. Louis Cardinals in 1985.
- 2) He was the White Sox reliever with 57 saves and a 1.83 ERA in 1990.
- 3) The Oriole catcher selected as the 1983 World Series MVP.
- 4) He managed the Yankees to a 5-4 win over the Red Sox in the 1978 American League East playoff game.
- 5) In 1982, he was both NLCS and World Series MVP for the Cardinals.
- 6) He won the National League Batting Championship in 1975, 1976, 1981, and 1983.
- 7) In 1978 he led the American League in stolen bases and in 1980 he led the National League.
- 8) While with the Indians, this right-handed flame thrower led the A.L. in strikeouts 7 times, threw 3 no-hitters and won 266 games.
- 9) He managed in the National League for 24 years, won 2,010 games, 3 pennants with Brooklyn and NY Giants and won the 1954 World Series.
- 10) For the Twins and the Angels, he led the league in batting 7 times including a .388 average in 1977.

UML Rugby Team Gets Shutout

by Michael Polcaro
Connector Staff

The UMass Lowell rugby club opened its season Saturday, April 10th. The team played Worcester Polytechnic Institute in its first game of the spring season. The final result of the A-side game was a Lowell loss by the score of 17-0. The second game or B-side match was much closer but the younger Lowell players couldn't pull off a victory either, losing 7-0.

The steady rain that had been falling for most of the morning let up just before the game started at noon. The wet field conditions only added to Lowell's offensive woes. Lowell failed to generate any offense throughout the game. It seemed as if they had forgotten how to run or pass properly as they put on a poor display of rugby skills. Dropped balls, lack of passing and running backwards all combined to produce a grand total of zero points or even threats of scoring points. Lowell's backs failed to get the job done on offense.

In the first half the forwards (or linemen) appeared to be heading for the same dismal performance but managed to pull together in the second half of the game. They did manage to win almost all the lineouts and a good portion of the scrumdowns in the second half. (A lineout is when the ball goes out of bounds and is thrown back in between two opposing lines of forwards, resulting in a battle for possession of the ball. A scrumdown is also a fight for possession but takes the form of two opposing wedges of bent over forwards literally pushing head-to-head above the loose ball rolling on the ground.) However, despite winning a majority of scrumdowns and lineouts, Lowell could not direct an offensive attack.

Defensively, Lowell picked up where they left off last fall. Aggressive hitting, solid tackling and relentless pursuit made for a solid defense. Only one try (or touchdown) was allowed by defensive breakdown. The other points came from a dropped ball in their own try zone and a long penalty kick by Worcester, not from defensive collapses.

The B-side played well for their young age. Made up of almost entirely of rookies and second season players, Lowell B-side was far behind Worcester in experience. Aggressive play and winning spirit kept them in the game throughout. They showed good potential and gained valuable game time on Saturday. A 7-0 loss was nothing to be ashamed of in their first game of the season.

Lowell has four or five games left on their schedule. The only home game will be on April 29th in the early evening. The rugby team hopes to entertain a large turnout at what is sure to be a wild, exciting event that kicks off Spring Carnival. For anyone interested in playing rugby the team always accepts new players at any time. No rugby experience is necessary. Contact Mike at 452-9048 or the Office of Recreational Sports at 934-2348.

Fio's Express

Free Delivery

459-3600

Monday-Thursday: 11AM to 1AM
Friday & Saturday: 11AM to 3AM
Sunday: 11AM to 11PM

Two 10" Pizzas

One Topping

$5.99

With this coupon

BURN-OUT SPECIAL

Medium Sub
10" Cheese Pizza
One Bag of Chips

$4.95

With this coupon

Carry-out "Burnout Specials"...No Coupon necessary, just your Student ID.

Pizza
	10"	12"	16"	12" syrian
Cheese	$4.35	5.75	7.75	5.25
1 Topping	4.90	6.75	9.05	6.25
2 Toppings	5.25	7.75	10.35	7.25
3 Toppings	5.80	8.75	11.65	8.25
4 Toppings	6.15	9.75	12.95	9.25
5 Toppings	6.70	10.75	14.95	10.25
Toppings
Thick Crust • Pepperoni • Ground Beef • Mushrooms • Green Peppers • Ham • Onion • Bacon • Spinach • Sausage • Broccoli • Pineapple • Fresh Garlic • Olives
The Fio: 10 Toppings for the price of 5; Pepperoni, Green Peppers, Onions, Ham, Mushrooms, Olives, Beef, Sausage, Bacon, Extra Cheese
Deluxe: 5 Toppings for the price of 4; Pepperoni, Sausage, Green Peppers, Onions, Mushrooms
SUBS AND SALADS
	Med.	Lg.	Med.	Lg.
Veggie	3.30	4.30	Italian	3.85 4.85
American	3.85	4.85	Turkey	3.95 4.95
Tuna	3.85	4.85	Ham & Cheese	3.95 4.95
Roast Beef	3.95	4.95	Meatballs	3.85 4.85
Cheese Steak	3.95	4.95	Sausage	3.95 4.95
B.L.T.	3.90	4.90	Teriyaki Cheese Steak	4.50 5.50
Steak Bomb	4.50	5.50	Chef Salad	3.95
Garden salad	2.95		Greek Salad	3.95